A snappy and close election, the result of which entrusted the presidency of the seniors to Lionel Semon, began the many activities of the year by which the seniors will long be remembered.

In most of the school's activities the responsible positions were held by seniors. Helen Dana was president of the Girls' Student Council, while Ackerman held that position in the Joint Council. Sarah Williams led the Y. W. C. A. through one of its best years, while Quinn Gowell, Leonard Gregory, Sam Weatherby, Alice Bolen, Margaret Butcher were the presidents of the Girls' Glee Club, Hi-Y, Dramatic Club, Normal Club, Home Economics, and O'ita, respectively.

Seniors also led in athletics this year, and eight members of the football team will be winning K. U. games next year.

Ackerman, one of the best players in the state, as well as many others of this year's basketball team, are likewise seniors.

Supt. and Mrs. H. P. Smith's Christmas party, complimentary to the seniors, was the first social event of the year. This was followed by a party in the spring, the seniors breakfast, faculty party, and the senior picnic.

The sophomore class is one of the most active classes in high school. It has furnished the musician for the school this year, namely, Loraine Carder. Several of its members were O'itas, and even athletics would not have been quite complete without the sophomores.

The fall election resulted in giving the leadership of the class to Wendell McKeever. A party was planned near the first of the year, and was a splendid success. Everyone also enjoyed the party which was given in the Spring. Let us hope that the members of the class of '23 will keep their good work going, and that by the time they are noble seniors their record will be one to be proud of.

The Joint Student Council is a combination off the Boys' and Girls' Councils. Three boys from the Senior and Junior classes, and one from the Sophomore, are chosen each spring to be Student council members. This group with two boys elected from the Freshman class forms the Boys' Council, which meets each week, and plans the activities for the boys in school.

The members of the Girls' Council are elected from the classes, with the same proportion and number of girls, but the presidents of the High School organiizations are also included as members.

Before last year the Student Council had been one, but since then the organization of the Girls' Council, under the leadership of Miss Riggs, the two have met separately each week, with a joint Student Council meeting once every month. At these meetings anything previously brought up by either Council, is acted upon by the two.

Many good measures have been taken up, but one of the most important things which the Council has done is to adopt the point system. One satisfactory to everybody was hard to find, but the members tried to work up one which would better the high school, and in order to do this they secured plans in operation in other schools, drawing up the tentative system from the better points in each.

The Girls' Student Council gave a party for all new girls at the first of school, several Middie Dances which were enjoyed by all, and a very good Valentine party. The Joint Council gave an all High School dance for the Beatrice boys when they played foot ball here which had the distinction of being the best school party held during the year.

The Cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. consists of the officers, advisors, and committee chairmen of the Y. W. C. A. The nine members have met once each month during the year, and discussed plans for their work.

After a novel membership campaign, resulting in two hundred and fifty members, the annual Hi-y, Y. W. banquet was held.

The year has been a good one for the Y. W. C. A., and many worth while things have been accomplished. Ten of the members attended the fall conference. The Service committee adopted and helped care for an old lady who was in need of friends. The girls' rest room was practically refurnished. Two good parties were given during the year, besides the annual spring picnic. The meetings have been helpful and interesting.

Conference money was made at various times by food sales, a week of cafeteria luncheons, and the sale of L. H. S. armbands, made by the conference committee. The Y. W. girls are looking forward with great pleasure and high expectations to the Summer conference at Estes Park.

This is the second year that the Boys' Glee Club has been in existence, but after this successful year, directed by Miss Minerva Hall, the club promises to be a permanent affair.

After selecting new members and electing officers, the boys had two lessons a week in preparation for the concert given at the Bowersock, April 18.

The boys' scene in the concert was a summer camp. The cook prepared the camp supper for the boys. Guns, fishing tackle, and all kinds of camping paraphernalia lying around added gretaly to the realistic appearance of the camp. The quartette, Stuart Campbell, Robert Campbell, Sam Weatherby, and Marquis Huffman, did very good work.

At the beginning of school the Girls' Glee Club was on its way to success. About fifteen new girls were chosen and the club began its work, directed by Miss Minerva Hall.

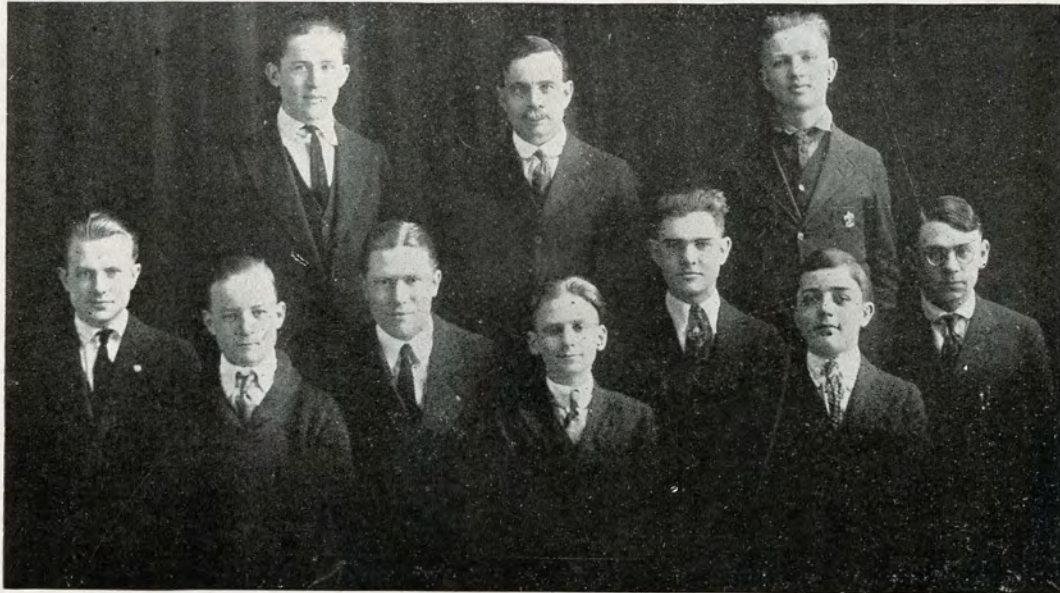

At the beginning of the second term the club had two lessons a week. This was in preparation for the concert given in the Bowersock April 18. Mrs. Arnold, music teacher at Junior High School, supervised the work on Thursday.

The concert this year was even more elaborate than those of previous years. The scene represented a Japanese Garden, and required a great deal of planning. The cherry trees in blossom, lanterns, and tea house, added greatly to the beauty of the stage. Special features of the concert were the chorus work, which had never been tried by the glee club before; the song, "To a Wild Rose," the odd Japanese songs, and solo dancing.

On the whole this year was most beneficial to all members.

The Hi-Y Club is the Y. M. C. A. for the boys in Lawrence High School. Their meetings are held in the city Y. M. C. A. every Tuesday evening. The meetings are sometimes discussion meetings, sometimes social gathering, and often outside speakers have been secured.

After the membership campaign in the fall, which resulted in adding 50 members, the Hi-Y and Y. W. C. A. held their annual banquet. It was a well planned, and unique affair.

There have been two conferences this year to which the Hi-Y has sent delegates. Ten boys from Lawrence attended the conference at Atchison. The activities of the Hi-Y for the year have consisted chiefly in their regular meetings, but a great deal has been done during the year to interest the boys in Y. M. C. A. work.

The purpose of the Home Economics Club is to make clear the problems pertaining to Home Economics which cannot be discussed in class because of the limited amount of time.

This is the first year the club has had pins. Year books, with the covers decorated in the club colors, green and white, were made by a committee and given to each member. The club has had very interesting programs. The meetings have been discussions of the historical study of the home. The topics began with the pre-historic age and were traced down to modern times. In the second term lectures on "Art in the Home" and "Home Nursing" were given. A tea for the mothers of the members, at which the farce, "Mrs. Oakley's Telephone," was given, was well attended. This year closed with a good picnic.

Misses Edith Cole, Lena Miller, Vivian Neiswender and Mable Swedberg were the able advisors for this year.

Under the direction of Miss Leta M. Harper, "The Irresistible Marmaduke," was ably presented by the class of '21 at the Bowersock Theater May 16. This was the first year that this play was released for amateurs. After hard practice the cast rendered it to a large and appreciative audience. The proceeds, amounting to about two hundred dollars, were given to help cover the cost of publishing the Annual.

The O'itas have had a busy and quite worth while year. They have had meetings every two weeks, consisting of debates, plays, and various programs. They gave a literary contest in which the best farce or short play received a prize and also a reading contest.

Several parties were given this year, the last one being a picnic, party and dance all in one. A new literary society for Freshmen and Sophomore girls was organized under the supervision of the O'ita.

Miss Elizabeth Kennedy has been the able supervisor for the year.

The Normal Training Club was organized in 1918 as a club composed of girls who were taking the teachers' course. It is always supervised by the Normal training teacher, who this year is Miss Mamie Clare Walker.

Meetings have been held every two weeks, at which there have been discussions on teachers' problems, talks by outside speakers, and varied interesting programs. A series of programs on etiquette were enjoyed very much. One of these was given by Margaret Beisecker at the home of Mrs. Smith.

The Club has given several parties this year, including a very successful pie social, given at Brackett school. A program was furnished by the Normal Training Girls. The proceeds amounted to fifty dollars, and were given to the department.

The Club regrets the fact that many of its most active members will, next year, be learned teachers.

The Footlighters Club held its annual tryout September 27, 1920. As there were only a few members left from last year, about twenty new names were added to the list. It was necessary to change the day of the club's meeting, so it has met twice a month on Thursday this year. The meetings have been devoted to the study of drama, reading plays, and presenting farces. Alice Griesa was elected vice president when Martha Virginia Horton left school.

At Vanity Fair, the dramatic club presented a clever farce, "Aunt Robertina." The annual Footlighters' play, "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," was staged at the Bowersock, March 14.

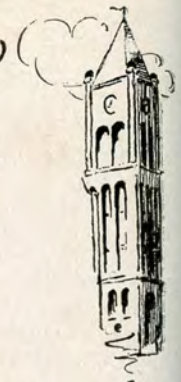

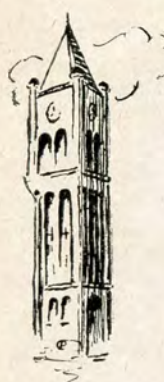

The Footlighters' Club has been organized three years, and has prospered greatly the last two, under the leadership of Miss Leta Harper.
