ZONA ELLEN SMITH

The Douglas County, KS. Genealogical Society was saddened by the death of one of its charter members, ZONA ELLEN SMITH on June 18, 1996. Zona was born on July 13, 1909 in Bourbon County, the daughter of Ebenezer SLOCUM and LuDell Swisher DART. She grew up in Anderson County and graduated in 1928 from Garnett High School. Zona married Claude Edson Smith on February 18, 1934 in Liberty, Missouri. Claude died in 1993.

Zona and Claude moved to Lawrence, KS. in 1952 where she attended Kansas University and worked in the William Allen White School of Journalism as administrative assistant to the dean until her retirement in 1973.

Zona was a member of the First Christian Church in Lawrence and a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

She was an active member in our society. We will remember and miss her.

We extend our sympathy to all of her family.

The Douglas County, KS. Genealogical Society purchased a book, "COMPENDIUM OF HISTORICAL SOURCES" by Ronald A. Bremer, to be placed in the DCGS Library in memory of Zona.

HELPFUL HINT

I hope this helps someone like it did me. I tied a jar on the tombstone at lola, Kansas of the grave of my great-grandmother with my name, telephone number, & self stamped envelope. I got a call on Decoration Day, this man had an obituary of my great-grandmother. Told me lots, date of her marriage, what county she lived in & dates when they moved, lots more. What a find! She had 10 children and I only knew of 4.

REMINISCENCE

by Mr. C.H. HOYT

On October 4, 1854, a small steamboat "Poplar Star" came to a stop at Westport Landing, now Kansas City, Mo., loaded with emigrants bound for Kansas. Among them was your humble servant, father, mother, and four sisters. The family lived in Kansas City the year '55. I saw the Missourians cross the river from Liberty and Boonville on their way to Kansas. They made their headquarters at the Eldridge house where I was working. I saw the late Gov. REEDER of Kansas at various times at the house on his way east. The hotel was full of drunken Missourians day and night. Gov. REEDER came downstairs into the bar room on the arm of Col. ELDRIDGE. He had on a hickory shirt and an ax over his shoulder, a pipe in his mouth, passed through the drunken crowd of Missourians out into the night. He made his escape to the boat that had been arranged for him and was taken on board of a steamer to St. Louis. Now I want to say the part the Eldridge brothers took in helping Gov. REEDER to escape was a very brave act that night. I heard sung that night for the first time "Dixie" and such other words as "Are you square on the goose," and the clink of glasses was the order of the days and nights. They would show the Yankees a thing or two. Nit. Dixie became afterwards a famous southern song.

On January 9, 1856, we arrived in Lawrence. The news had just reached Lawrence that a Free Stater had been killed at eastern Leavenworth county by the border ruffians. I went to the front or firing line at the age of 11 about, on the ridge about where John SPEER's old home now stands to head off or capture the 2800 Missourians who were investing Lawrence. I was armed with a single barrel pistol, an old pepper-box revolver and if I could have got up near enough to the 2800 I would have taken them all in care with my quick firing gun. But they must have got a tip and lit out for old Mazo.

I was with Lane at Lecompton and when Col. St. George MCCOOK came up with the United States marshal, Gen. LANE stepped into the ranks and took a gun, pulled his hat over eyes so the United States marshal would not see or know him. I got on Lane's old yellow horse and rode it around to the amusement of the free state boys. I was ready at all times day and night, no hardships too great for me, to ride a horse around a ring, to tramp out wheat and by the way that was about the only breadstuff we had in those dark and stormy days of '55 and '56. But time soon changed, Kansas came out of the smoke a free state and the war came on, but I think we got even with old Missouri. Served in all about 4 years and a half. All honor the men and women of '55 and '56.

Queries

I would like to have children's names of Sabra (GOSLIN) MOORE & G.J. MOORE. The Moore's were married Nov. 26, 1836, Nichols Co., Kentucky or Fleming Co., Kentucky, then moved to Rush Co., Indiana. They lived there several years after marriage. In 1849, moved to Marion Co., Indiana. They had ten children. I have the last four, Margaret born KY 1842, Nathan born KY 1849, James Wiley born Charleston, Ill 1853, and John B. MOORE born in Ill 1857. G.J. MOORE died 1876, Nevada, MO. Sabra died August 31, 1903, Iola, KS.

My great-grandma Sabra MOORE born 1815, KY, died in Iola, KS, 1903 is buried in Iola cemetery on Highway 54. There are six names on tombstone (WILSON), Nathan 1850-1929, George, Ann 1852-1870, Elizabeth A. 1857-1904, Martha WILSON OSBORN RIGGS, wife of Levi, 1822-1903, Levi 1812-1875, Harriet Jones 1841-1874, Sabra MOORE 1815-1903. I would like to know who these people are.

Queries

I would like to have children's names of Sabra (GOSLIN) MOORE & G.J. MOORE. The Moore's were married Nov. 26, 1836, Nichols Co., Kentucky or Fleming Co., Kentucky, then moved to Rush Co., Indiana. They lived there several years after marriage. In 1849, moved to Marion Co., Indiana. They had ten children. I have the last four, Margaret born KY 1842, Nathan born KY 1849, James Wiley born Charleston, Ill 1853, and John B. MOORE born in Ill 1857. G.J. MOORE died 1876, Nevada, MO. Sabra died August 31, 1903, Iola, KS.

My great-grandma Sabra MOORE born 1815, KY, died in Iola, KS, 1903 is buried in Iola cemetery on Highway 54. There are six names on tombstone (WILSON), Nathan 1850-1929, George, Ann 1852-1870, Elizabeth A. 1857-1904, Martha WILSON OSBORN RIGGS, wife of Levi, 1822-1903, Levi 1812-1875, Harriet Jones 1841-1874, Sabra MOORE 1815-1903. I would like to know who these people are.
