https://kansashistoricalsociety.newspapers.com/image/60326866

<ul> <li>GOUNDED LAWRENCE LIBRARY</li> <li>Was Givil War Veteram-Afterwards Was a Publisher.</li> <li>In Business in Lawrence Since 1864, Machine Marker Morable Since 1864, Machine Marker Morable Since 1864, Machine Marker Pron Army.</li> <li>The funeral arrangements of J. S. Boughton, whose death occurred with the exception of Syddenly yesterilay, have not been definitely made yet. All of the children, with the exception of Syddenly systemical to the did on Statute and the second of the second of</li></ul>		Dbsequies of J. S. Boughton De- layed to Hear From Ghildren.
Was Okur Was Yeana-Athen wards was a sublished. In Bushness in Lawrence Since 1864, Muchan Was Monorably Disk. In Bushness in Lawrence Since 1864, Muchan Was Monorably Disk. In Bushness in Lawrence Since 1864, Muchan Was Monorably Disk. The fumeral arrangements of J. S. Soughton, whose death occurred with the secoption of Sydney who is in Texas have been heard from . It is probable that the fulders, with the exception of Sydney who is in Texas have been heard from . It is probable that the fulders, with the secoption of Sydney who is in Texas have been heard from . It is probable that the fulders, with the secoption of Sydney who is an important events of the eity during its history, important events, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of Pil2 Hist fishter, the RY of Pil2 Hist History of Pil2 History fishter, the RY of Pil2 History fishter, the RY of Pil2 History fishter, the RY of Pil2 History fishter history fishter, the RY of Pil2 History fishter, the RY of Pil2 History filz histo
A basing have need Since 1884, the set of the share of the second suddenly yesterilay, have not been derived with the exception of Syder with the interaction of Syder with the syder of Side Syder with the syder of Side Syder
When He Was Honorably Dischard Control of the children with the exception of Syd-diniely yesterially, have not been definitely made yet. All of the children, with the exception of Syd-din was been heard from . It is probable that the ful- erat will be held on Saturday. Jasph S. Bouglyon, who was unmbered among the best citizens of a lawrence, was conneted activally with many important events of the city during its history, important among his works being the founding of Lawrence, was conneted activally with many important events of the city during its history, important among his works being the founding of Lawrence, was conneted activally with many important events of the city during its history, important among his works being the founding of the Lawrence (Lit Libray). M. Boughton was a member of an di Conneticut family, whose grandfather, John Boughton, fought in the war of 1812. His father, the Bist minister in that state. He died at Moravin at the age of 72, lis wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Spines, whose family was among the acty Dutch settlers on the Hadras, Sain and Conneticut family. John Soughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Spines, whose family was among the acty Dutch settlers on the Hadrase, Bai Su minister in that state. He died at Moravin at the age of 72, lis wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Spines, Whose family was the acture of the Hadrase and the das spinet of the angenet family and the age of 17, In 1800 he went to Pipestone, Mich, where he secured a position and to had a spinet of the assent of 1802 in New Orleans and not the Sissippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Moya, the research on a citerkahip in Server 1802 in New Orleans and net Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Moya, the research on a citerkahip in Server 1802 in New Orleans and net Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Moya, the research on a citerkahip		wards Was a Publisher.
Boughtoni, whose death occurred waddenty yesterlay, have not been definitely made yet. All of the children, with the exception of Syd- ney who is in Texas have been heard from. It is probable that the fu- lent will be held on Staturday. Joseph S. Bouglyon, who was mumbered among the best citizens of Labrence, was connected actively with many inportant events of the eity during its history, important among his works being the founding of the Lawrence, was connected actively with many important events, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His grandfather, John Boughton, fonght in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Boughton, was born in Cay- uga county, N. Y., and was a pioneer Baptist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Datch settlers on the Had- Joroka. Joseph Boughton was born in Cay- wego, N. Y. March 2, IS39. He was an teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich, yan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition in Coreans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Missispi. The only important engagement he was in vasa the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable dicknarge from active service, owing to Hi health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in 1864 mJoined Started a circulation of the Lawrence City Library. For two years he was so success- from active service, owing to Hi health after he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship at its 1864 mJ Goined Started a circulation of the Lawrence City Library. For two years he was so success- for fixed a fixed a circulation of the Tabune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribume as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he goined boughts, attorneys etc. His marring to Minks and le- and portang to Minks at die- and portang to Minks at die- gon the Steer Frienda, which is the official organ for that socicity. He	1	When He Was Honorably Dis-
Nome is the body on starting. Joseph S. Bouglyon, who was mumbered among the best citizens of Lawrence, was connected actively with many important events of the city during its history, important atomosh its works being the fonding of the Lawrence (ity Library. Mr. Boughton was a member of an oid Connecticut family, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His grandfather, John Boughton, fonght in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Boughton, was born in Cay- uga county. N. Y., and was a pioneer Baptist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Dutch settlers on the Hud- loo. She is now residing in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was horn in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayunga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 7. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Ofleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Missispit. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable discharged to Atlanta. He was discharged at Sherman's arraw from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Sherman's arraw from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at 1980 Aft Dioned his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorily after his ar- vival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the found- tion of the Lawence City Library. Par two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribune as circula- tion and correspondent. In 1878 he of he Seleet Frienda, which is the o		The funeral arrangements of J. S.
Nome is the body on starting. Joseph S. Bouglyon, who was mumbered among the best citizens of Lawrence, was connected actively with many important events of the city during its history, important atomosh its works being the fonding of the Lawrence (ity Library. Mr. Boughton was a member of an oid Connecticut family, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His grandfather, John Boughton, fonght in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Boughton, was born in Cay- uga county. N. Y., and was a pioneer Baptist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Dutch settlers on the Hud- loo. She is now residing in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was horn in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayunga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 7. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Ofleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Missispit. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable discharged to Atlanta. He was discharged at Sherman's arraw from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Sherman's arraw from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at 1980 Aft Dioned his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorily after his ar- vival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the found- tion of the Lawence City Library. Par two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribune as circula- tion and correspondent. In 1878 he of he Seleet Frienda, which is the o		Boughton, whose death occurred suddenly yesterday, have not been
Nome is the body on starting. Joseph S. Bouglyon, who was mumbered among the best citizens of Lawrence, was connected actively with many important events of the city during its history, important atomosh its works being the fonding of the Lawrence (ity Library. Mr. Boughton was a member of an oid Connecticut family, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His grandfather, John Boughton, fonght in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Boughton, was born in Cay- uga county. N. Y., and was a pioneer Baptist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Dutch settlers on the Hud- loo. She is now residing in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was horn in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayunga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 7. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Ofleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Missispit. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable discharged to Atlanta. He was discharged at Sherman's arraw from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Sherman's arraw from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at 1980 Aft Dioned his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorily after his ar- vival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the found- tion of the Lawence City Library. Par two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribune as circula- tion and correspondent. In 1878 he of he Seleet Frienda, which is the o		definitely made yet. All of the children, with the exception of Syd-
numbered among the best eitheas of Lawrence, was connected actively with many important events of the eity during its history, important among his works being the founding of the Lawrence City Library. Mr. Boughton was a member of an old Connecticut Tamily, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His yrandfather, John Boughton, fonght in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Boughton, was born in Cay- uga conty, N. Y., and was a pioneer Baplist minister in that state. He died at Moravin at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose Jamily was among the ardy Dutch settlers on the Had- son. She is now residing in this ity with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, LS30. He was reared in Corpang contry and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan indanty. He was sent to Balt- more and joined Butler's expedition in New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in Now Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had receivered he was apointed to a clerkhip in Sherman's array from Chatanocogn to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashvillo in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorty after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulation to John Speer, the editor of the Thank. Mrter he had receivered he was appointed to a clerkhip and Nashvillo in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorty after his ar- rivale for the Tribune as eivela- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he logad to the Seleet Order of Friends. He has been the forma- tion of the Lawrence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Ropublican paper which he sold John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton then the alawrence of		from. It is probable that the fu-with many important events of the eity during its history, important among his works being the founding of the Lawrence City Library. Mr. Boughton was a member of an ol Conneticent family, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His randfather, John Boughton, Konght in the war of 1812. His father, the Bayist minister in that state. He died at Moravin at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Dutch settlers on the Hud- son. She is now residing in this eight with her dangster, Mr. Re. Paul Brocks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y. Mareh 2, 1839. He was reared in Caynaga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- an teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tender. In Angust, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- ann infantry. He was sent to Balti- mor and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississipi. The only important engagement he was in was the Batile of Baton Ronge. He received honorable discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorty after his ar- rival here hend recovered he was appointed to a clerkhip at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorty after his ar- rival here hen purchased a number of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the mixed of the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he legan the pirining of bhaths and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marrings to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton the traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he longed to the Select Friend, which is the longed to the Select Friend, which is the longed to the Select Friend, which is the longed		Joseph S. Boughton, who was among his works being the founding of the Lawrence City Library. Mr. Boughton was a member of an ol Connecticut family, whose genealogy dates hack to the early settlement of New England. His grandfather, John Boughton, fought in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Boughton, was born in Cay- uga conty, N. Y., and was a pioneer Bapitst minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Dutch settlers on the Hud- son. She is now residing in this eigt with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, IS39. He was reared in Caynaga contry and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipesione, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- agn infrantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to Kew Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He reseived honorable discharge from ative serview, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's array from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton eame to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortiy after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulation di- schard and atter d a circulation di- schard and atter d a circulation the Lawrence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Yalley Courier a weak- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878/be legan the printing of blanks and le- gal appers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Scheet Order of Friends. He		of Lawrence, was connected actively with many important events of the old Connecticut family, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His randfather, John Boughton, fonght in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Booghton, was born in Cay- uga county, N. Y., and was a pioneer Baptist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Dutch settlers on the Had- son. She is now residing in this either and the settlers on the Had- son. She is now residing in this diet and the adaghter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., Mareb 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayunga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mieh, where he secured a position as a teacher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Batile of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had receivered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's array from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nasiville in 1864. Mr. Boughton canne to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorty after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulation tion of the Lawence City Library, For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold John Sper, the editor of the Trivale Mr Boughter, and the publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper, which he sold John Sper, the editor of the Trivane Mr. Booghton then traveled for the Tribane as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878he legan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Booghton the traveled		eity during its history, important old Connecticut family, whose genealogy dates back to the early settlement of New England. His randfather, John Boughton, fonght in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Booghton, was born in Cay- uga county, N. Y., and was a pioneer Baptist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among the early Dutch settlers on the Had- son. She is now residing in this either and the settlers on the Had- son. She is now residing in this diet and the adaghter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., Mareb 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayunga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mieh, where he secured a position as a teacher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Batile of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had receivered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's array from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nasiville in 1864. Mr. Boughton canne to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shorty after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulation tion of the Lawence City Library, For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold John Sper, the editor of the Trivale Mr Boughter, and the publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper, which he sold John Sper, the editor of the Trivane Mr. Booghton then traveled for the Tribane as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878he legan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Booghton the traveled		of the Lawrence City Library. Mr. Boughton was a member of an
In the way of 1512. This failing, the Rev. A. Boughton, was how in ICAy- uga county, N. Y., and was a pioneer Bapist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was knong the arty Dutch settlers on the Hud- son. She is now residing in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayunga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipesione, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- agn infrantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Missispit. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active serview, owing to ill Neahth. After he had receiver die was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's array from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortiy after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulaing li- beary. This move was so success- ill that it proved to be the found- tion of the Lawence City Libary. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Yalley Conrier a weak- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he longed to the Select Friend, which is the logical organ for that acoetiers. His was a member of Washington Post No. 1, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Friend, which is the logical organ for that acoetiers. His was a so a member and a trustee of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is and there is ons, Paul, who is connected with the		old Connecticut family, whose genealogy dates back to the early
In the way of 1512. This failing, the Rev. A. Boughton, was how in ICAy- uga county, N. Y., and was a pioneer Bapist minister in that state. He died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was knong the arty Dutch settlers on the Hud- son. She is now residing in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayunga county and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipesione, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- agn infrantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Missispit. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active serview, owing to ill Neahth. After he had receiver die was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's array from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortiy after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulaing li- beary. This move was so success- ill that it proved to be the found- tion of the Lawence City Libary. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Yalley Conrier a weak- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he longed to the Select Friend, which is the logical organ for that acoetiers. His was a member of Washington Post No. 1, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Friend, which is the logical organ for that acoetiers. His was a so a member and a trustee of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is and there is ons, Paul, who is connected with the		settlement of New England. His grandfather, John Boughton, fought city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Bonghton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., Mareh 2, 1839, He was reared in Czyuaga contry and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississipyi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 mJ Goined his siter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- beary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be th founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. Por two years he was publisher of the Kaw Yalley Courier a weak- ky Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he gan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Scheet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Ho was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Mrk, on engehter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Liberceiver.		in the war of 1812. His father, the Rev. A. Boughton, was born in Cay-
city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Bonghton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., Mareh 2, 1839, He was reared in Czyuaga contry and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississipyi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 mJ Goined his siter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- beary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be th founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. Por two years he was publisher of the Kaw Yalley Courier a weak- ky Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he gan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Scheet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Ho was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Mrk, on engehter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Liberceiver.		uga county, N. Y., and was a pioneer Baptist minister in that state. He
city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Bonghton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., Mareh 2, 1839, He was reared in Czyuaga contry and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississipyi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 mJ Goined his siter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- beary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be th founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. Por two years he was publisher of the Kaw Yalley Courier a weak- ky Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he gan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Scheet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Ho was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Mrk, on engehter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Liberceiver.		died at Moravia at the age of 72. His wife, Mr. J. S. Boughton's city with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Joseph Bonghton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., Mareh 2, 1839, He was reared in Czyuaga contry and at- tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a tencher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississipyi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Batton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chatanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 mJ Goined his siter, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- beary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be th founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. Por two years he was publisher of the Kaw Yalley Courier a weak- ky Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton the Traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he gan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Scheet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Ho was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that acoetisty. Mrk, on engehter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Liberceiver.		mother, was formerly Hannah Squires, whose family was among
Brooks. Joseph Boughton was born in Os- wego, N. Y., March 2, IS39. He was reared in Caynaga county and at- tended Coriland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In 1860 he went to Pipestone, Mich., where he secured a position as a teacher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chatanoogn to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashvillo in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs., Paul Brooks. Shortiy after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of the Kaw Yulley Courier a week- ly Ropublican paper which he sold John Speer, the editor of the Trivale for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he song to the Lawence City Library. For two years, he was publisher of the Kaw Yulley Courier a week- ly Ropublican paper, which he sold John Speer, the editor of the Trivale for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he legan the printing of blanks and le- gan tapers for banks, attorneys etc. His marrings to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Stelet Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Stelet Friend, which is the longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Lixen of the association. Mr, Boughton is survived by his was a member and a trustee of the Life and Annity Association.		son. She is now residing in this
1860 he went to Pipesione, Much, where he secured a position as a teacher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Buller's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 rdb joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Conrier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Trivue. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele of the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1875 he egan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele. The Selicabeth Gill took place here, Mr. Boughton to Ka a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Priend, which is the official organ for that societiy. His was also a member and a trustee of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangether, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Libhoreyburg around a trustee of Holl Libhoreyburg around a function for the sole of the sole of the I lib Life and Annity Association.		Brooks
1860 he went to Pipesione, Much, where he secured a position as a teacher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Buller's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 rdb joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Conrier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Trivue. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele of the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1875 he egan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele. The Selicabeth Gill took place here, Mr. Boughton to Ka a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Priend, which is the official organ for that societiy. His was also a member and a trustee of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangether, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Libhoreyburg around a trustee of Holl Libhoreyburg around a function for the sole of the sole of the I lib Life and Annity Association.		wego, N. Y., March 2, 1839. He was reared in Cayuaga county and at-
1860 he went to Pipesione, Much, where he secured a position as a teacher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi- gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Buller's expedition to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 rdb joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Conrier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Trivue. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele of the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1875 he egan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele. Mr. Boughton then Trivaele. The Selicabeth Gill took place here, Mr. Boughton to Ka a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Priend, which is the official organ for that societiy. His was also a member and a trustee of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangether, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Libhoreyburg around a trustee of Holl Libhoreyburg around a function for the sole of the sole of the I lib Life and Annity Association.		tended Cortland Academy. He be- gan teaching at the age of 17. In
to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 raft opined his sizet, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Conrise a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Trivane. Mr. Boughton then Trivated for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1875 he egan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Priend, which is the official organ for that societiy. Hi was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangets, and there sons, Paul, who is connected with the sons Houl Liberceiburge.
to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New Orleans and on the Mississippi. The only important engagement he was in was the Battle of Baton Rouge. He received honorable discharge from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashville in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 raft opined his sizet, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Conrise a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Trivane. Mr. Boughton then Trivated for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1875 he egan the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Priend, which is the official organ for that societiy. Hi was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangets, and there sons, Paul, who is connected with the sons Houl Liberceiburge.	ł	teacher. In August, 1861, he en- listed in Company B Sixth Michi-
The reserved noncome discussive from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nadwills in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 rath ojned his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- berry. This move was so snecess- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- thy Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Drief of Friends, He has been the publisher of the Select Friend, which is the official organ for that societist. Mr, Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangitter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Libhergobien care.	ł	gan infantry. He was sent to Balti- more and joined Butler's expedition
The reserved noncome discussive from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nadwills in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 rath ojned his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- berry. This move was so snecess- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- thy Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Drief of Friends, He has been the publisher of the Select Friend, which is the official organ for that societist. Mr, Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangitter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Libhergobien care.		to New Orleans. After that he spent the summer of 1862 in New
The reserved noncome discussive from active service, owing to ill health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkship in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nadwills in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 rath ojned his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- berry. This move was so snecess- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- thy Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Drief of Friends, He has been the publisher of the Select Friend, which is the official organ for that societist. Mr, Boughton is survived by his wife, oin dangitter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the full Libhergobien care.		only important engagement he was health. After he had recovered he was appointed to a clerkhip in Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at Nashvillo in 1864. Mr. Boughton came to Lawrence in 1864 rad joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- berry. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ty Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Select Friend, which is the oficial organ for that sociation. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, oin danghter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the	I	He received nonorable discharge
Mr. Boughioù came to Lawrenez in 1864 and joined his sitzer, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortiy after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- berry. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Booghton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he began the printing of Johns and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton Nos a member of Washington Post No, 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Priend, which is the official organ for that societist. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one danghter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the	ł	health After he had recovered he
Mr. Boughioù came to Lawrenez in 1864 and joined his sitzer, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortiy after his ar- rival here he purchased a number of books and started a circulating li- berry. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawenee City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- by Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Booghton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In 1878 he began the printing of Johns and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Priend, which is the official organ for that sociation. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one dangether, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the bull Libnergiburg as market.		Sherman's army from Chattanooga to Atlanta. He was discharged at books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In IST8 he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Drief of Friends, He has been the publisher of the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that societion. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the books and started a circulating li- brary. This move was so success- ful that it proved to be the founda- tion of the Lawence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In IST8 he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Drief of Friends, He has been the publisher of the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that societion. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the		in 1864 and joined his sister, Mrs. Paul Brooks. Shortly after his ar-
In this is proven the constraint of the sevence City Library. For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Courier a week- ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the Tribune. Mr. Boughton then traveled for the Tribune as circula- tor and correspondent. In ISTS he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that society. He was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annuity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Paul Librogroup of the Select Diversion of Too.	Į	books and started a circulating li-
the rand correspondent. In ISTS he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Bonghton was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that society. He was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annuity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Holl Libborgerburg association.		ful that it proved to be the founda-
the rand correspondent. In ISTS he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Bonghton was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that society. He was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annuity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Holl Libborgerburg association.		For two years he was publisher of the Kaw Valley Convier a week-
the rand correspondent. In ISTS he began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Bonghton was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Scleet Friend, which is the official organ for that society. He was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annuity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Holl Libborgerburg association.		ly Republican paper which he sold to John Speer, the editor of the tor and correspondent. In 1878 be began the printing of blanks and le- gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marrings to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Select Friend, which is the official organ for that society. He was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annuity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Hell Libborgebing accurate of To.
gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marringe to Miss Elizabeth Gill took place here. Mr. Boughton was a member of Washington Post No, 12, G, A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Prinend, which is the of the Select Prinend, which is the Gilical organ for that society. His was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Hall Libhorexplure assume of To.		tor and correspondent. In 1878 he began the printing of blanks and le-was a member of Washington Post No. 12, G. A. R., and he also be- longed to the Select Order of Friends. He has been the publisher of the Select Friend, which is the official organ for that society. He was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annuity Association. Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Hell Lithersbürg accurate of To.		gal papers for banks, attorneys etc. His marriage to Miss Elizabeth
Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Hall Litherrowhing company of Ta		was a member of Washington Post
Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Hall Litherrowhing company of Ta		longed to the Select Order of
Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Hall Litherrowhing company of Ta		of the Select Friend, which is the official organ for that society. He
Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons, Paul, who is connected with the Hall Litherrowhing company of Ta		was also a member and a trustee of the Life and Annuity Association
Paul, who is connected with the	-	Mr. Boughton is survived by his wife, one daughter, and three sons. peka; Arthur, who is in the general offices of Swift & Company of Chi-		Faul, who is connected with the peka; Arthur, who is in the general offices of Swift & Company of Chi-