The Pioneer welcomes articles and records for publication that are relevant to Douglas County family history, with the exception of published and copyrighted material. It is not necessary that articles be camera ready, but if you are typing for that purpose, be sure to leave enough margin space for binding. Send submissions to the Pioneer editor at the address above, or submit to one of the Administrative Committee. If you can give us the articles on disk we would appreciate it. The index to volume 21 will be in the last issue of the volume.

Address Corrections: If our pioneer is returned to us by the Post Office for incorrect address and you have not filed an address correction with the Society the Pioneer will be remailed to you ONLY UPON RECEIPT of $4.00 to cover Post Office charges to us.

NEIS, KINDIG, MATNEY PAPERS

Several years ago the family of Elizabeth Neis brought many boxes of family records to the Society to save them from the trash. We have stored them for all this time. Recently we were contacted by a family member in Pennsylvania who wanted to see some of the records. We sorted through the boxes and dispersed the records as follows: 4 boxes were sent to the relative in Pennsylvania, the Society took out some of the duplicate publications and that is what is listed below, and the remaining 6 boxes were given to the Eudora Public Library.

The following titles will be housed in the Helen Osma Room of the Lawrence Public Library. They may not be checked out, but you are certainly encouraged to use them extensively in the room.

Kith and kin of George Wolf, Governor of Pennsylvania, 1829-35.

Notebook of Matney records.

Ancestors, descendants and relatives of Charles Daniel Kindig and Ellen (Beishline) Kindig.

Genealogy of Jacob King (Konig) and Matheus King (Konig) of Northampton County, Pennsylvania.

Matney Connections, Brooks Matney and Jennit Young, William Matney, and Sarah Yocum, and allied families.

Charles Matney of Lone Star, ca. 1810-76.

Brooks Matney and many others.

Shackelford Tree by Betty Murray.

1850 Federal Census. Tazewell County, Virginia by Susie Shrader.

Relatives, ancestors, and descendants of William Samuel Matney and Frances Bishop Porter ("Sam" and "Frankie").

Index to Douglas County History of Kansas by Andreas.

Genealogical table of the descendants of Solomon Coker.

The Shirk family history and genealogy from 1665 to 1914.

Bowman, Shackelford, Nance. Double-cousin descendants of Harrison Champion Bowman and Irena Shackelford Stiles, John Maglimmery Bowman, and Caroline Shackelford and their ancestry.

OSMA ROOM IS COMPLETED

The renovation of the Helen Osma Family History Room in the Lawrence Public Library is completed. The size has been doubled and we thank the Library for doing this project. We appreciate all of you being patient while it was being worked on. Now is the time to formulate a Collection Policy for the Society's part of the Osma Room. As you can see from the following letter from Bruce Flanders, director of the Lawrence Public Library, they are interested in making the Osma Room be an even greater asset to the library and the community.

The Society will hold a meeting on May 5 at 2 pm in the Osma Room at the Library. Our topic will be to talk about and formulate policies for the Society's part in the Osma Room. We will have representatives from the DAR and the Library present so we can all agree on the direction for the Osma Room. A tentative policy for collecting quarterlies follows; we will discuss it at the May 5 meeting: Continue exchanging quarterlies from Kansas, Colorado, Missouri, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, and Virginia. Keep 5 years of each quarterly. What to do with the ones we discard?

Dear Mary:

I want to thank you for your encouragement and guidance relating to our work on expanding the Osma Room. The renovation project took a lot longer than I would have liked, but I believe the end result is good.

We recently installed a patron counter at the entrance to the Osma Room, so we should be able to maintain accurate statistics regarding use of the Osma Room resources.

As you noted to me in your March 3 letter, there is more work to do. I am open to the Society's desire to place abstracts in this room. A number of the library's vertical file cabinets will be available to help house these materials. Also, the shelving on the south wall can be extended. I have asked Cecilia to coordinate these actions.

I should note that I have a concern about the "eclectic" appearance of the free-standing furniture and shelves in the Osma Room. I would like to work with the Society over the next year to improve this aspect of the room.

I would appreciate an evaluation of what freestanding furniture is needed in the room. We can work with the Salvation Army, Social Service League, or other groups to find a new home for the furnishings, if any, which are determined by reference staff and Society members to no longer be needed. And, we could explore Library or Friends funding for new furnishings, should any be identified as desirable.

Again, many thanks for your help in this, and other, library projects.

Respectfully,

Bruce

BOOK REVIEWS

by Mary Burchill

Cole, Trafford R. Italian Genealogical Records: How to Use Italian Civil, Ecclesiastical and Other Records in Family History Research. Salt Lake City: Ancestry, 1995. 251p. Illus, index, appendices.

The chapter titles after the introduction are: History of Italy and Italian Record Sources, Meaning and Origin of Italian Surnames, Noble Families, Civil Vital Records, Napoleonic Civil Records, Parish Records, Alternative Ecclesiastical Records, Alternative Record Sources, Research Procedures, Research by Correspondence, Reading the Records. The appendices are: Addresses of the Italian State Archives, Addresses of the Diocese Seats. There is a glossary of Italian terms, a bibliography, and an extensive index. The detailed information in this volume will be very valuable to those with Italian ancestors.

This book will be shelved in the Osma Room and was purchased by the Society.

Allen, Desmond Wales, and Carolyn Earle Billingsley. How to Get the Most Out of Death Certificates. Conway, AR: Research Associates, 1991. Approx. 22 pages.

The expected information including why use death certificates, where to write, cost, and how to order information and what to do if you don't find a death certificate is found. Probably one of the most interesting inclusions is "what to look for on a certificate" and what this information can lead you to. Delayed death certificates and alternate sources finish out the text. Included is a map of State-Wide Vital Registration Beginning Dates, and a listing of Vital Records Offices in the United States.

This booklet will be shelved in the Osma Room and was purchased by the Society.

Allen, Desmond Wales, and Carolyn Earle Billingsley. Social Security Applications: A Genealogical Resource. Conway, AR: Research Associates, Conway, AR, 1995. Approx. 20 pages.

A very informative and interesting booklet on how to find and what the information is in Social Security applications. How to find a Social Security number and then obtaining the information is included.

This booklet will be shelved in the Osma Room and was purchased by the Society.

Allen, Desmond Wales. Where to Write for County Maps. 3rd edition. Conway, AR: Research Associates, 1998. Approx. 20 pages.

The introduction includes why county maps are important, how to use county maps, addresses including the internet, tips on ordering and other kinds of maps that are useful. The rest of the booklet is a state by state listing. These lists include addresses, phone numbers, web sites, prices, etc.

This booklet will be shelved in the Osma Room and was purchased by the Society.

Allen, Desmond Wales. Where to Write for Confederate Pension Records. 3rd edition. Conway, AR: 1998. Approx. 16 pages.

The author speaks to jurisdiction, record location, information about individual states and policies changes. Information on each of 14 Confederate states includes earliest legislation, addresses, costs, and internet addresses. The states included are Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia. There is a listing of other sources of information.

This booklet will be shelved in the Osma Room and was purchased by the Society.

Betteridge, Leona B. Frederick Badsky Descendants in America and His Ancestors in Germany. University Place, WA: author, 1998. Unpaged, illustrated, pedigree charts, family group sheets, maps.

This self-published volume of about 200 pages is clear and well done. It traces the family in Germany from 1812 to the present day. That is done with maps, pedigree charts, family group sheets, census photocopies, and many other primary records. Among surnames included are Badsky, Batsche, Badscha, Buchholz, and Blocher. This family has strong Douglas County connections.

This book will be shelved in the Osma Room and was a gift from the author.

Utley, Lucille. Marion County, South Carolina Abstracts of Deeds. Volume 2: books F-I and K, 1811-1823. Charlotte, NC: Forebears Press, 1997. 237 pages, indexes.

These deeds were abstracted from the Deed Books by Lucille Utley and were edited, indexed, and published by Alita White Sutcliffe. This book, volume 2, is 195 pages of deeds abstracted from the Marion County, South Carolina books. The introduction clearly states the periods covered, where they can be found, and other places to look for similar records. 42 pages of indexes include Place Names, Slave Names, Female First Names, and index of Names. There is a loose map of Marion County dated 1815, enlarged and improved in 1882.

This volume will be shelved in the Osma Room and was purchased by the Society. Volume 1 is already on the shelves.

Guide to the 1885 Census, Douglas County, Kansas

Prepared by Paul Jordan, Douglas County Genealogical Society, 1999

Many of the pages of this census are not labeled with the Ward number of Lawrence or the name of the Township, and the page numbers can be confusing. This explanation is designed for identifying localities associated with Schedule 1, Inhabitants, which can be done by turning slowly through the film while noting the order of the items as shown on the following list. Page numbers refer to the large scribbled numbers that are usually found only on the first page of each set of three pages of Schedule 1. "Other than Schedule 1" usually is Schedules 2 through 11 and certification pages. Film numbers are those shown on the microfilm boxes in the Lawrence Public Library.

PARTIAL INDEXES TO 1885 CENSUS, DOUGLAS COUNTY, KANSAS

The more or less alphabetical list of residents starting on page 24 of the 1886 City Directory for Lawrence can be used to determine the Ward in which a resident lived, thus eliminating the need to search all six Wards. Most of the adult males and some females are listed in the directory, so it can be a great time-saver for census searches. By using the address listed in the directory, and the information about street addresses and Wards below, the searcher can learn which Ward to search in the census. A sampling indicates that the Ward locations of about 70 to 75 percent of the heads of household in the census can be found by using the City Directory as a surname index. Be aware that, within each letter of the alphabet in the Directory, the surnames are not entirely in alphabetical order.

Although the 1886 City Directory doesn't list residents outside Lawrence, the 1890-91 directory does. Starting on page 230, the "Directory of the Farmers and Land Owners of Douglas County, Kansas" shows the name of the Township in which each farm is located. Thus, for the farm families who didn't move across Township lines between 1885 and 1890, the census user can narrow the search from nine Townships to only one. A sampling indicates that the Township locations of about 75 to 80 percent of the rural residents can be found by using the 1890-91 Directory as a surname index.

What Do I Do With All of This Stuff?

by Edward Henry Gaulin (Sr.)

A message on the Internet caught my eye the other day and I couldn't get it out of my mind. A West Coast Genealogist had been exchanging information with a researcher in Virginia for sometime. Then it happened! Her last message "bounced" - it couldn't be delivered as the address no longer existed.

Fortunately she had received a number of family group sheets from her correspondent which listed a telephone number. When she called the number a man answered, so she asked for her "Internet" friend and, after a slight hesitation was told, "Oh, Mary Ann passed away three weeks ago." Shocked, but ever gracious, she expressed her sympathy and commented how close this long-distance relationship had become and how it will be missed by her. The husband explained that he was sorry that he couldn't be of any help because he really didn't know much about what his wife was doing with her genealogy.

Perhaps you too have noticed at genealogical gatherings that the average age of the participants is something in excess of 39 years, at least judging by hair color. Most of us really don't have a lot of time to devote to our hobby until after the kids are grown, out of school and we've retired. Then it is no longer a hobby, it becomes an obsession. At some point in our continuous search for dead people, our ancestors, we recognize our own mortality and start to think about a permanent home for our research. If our children or grandchildren appear to be interested, we have it made, but frequently that's not the case. Then what happens to our "stuff"?

Genealogists are usually pretty smart people, until it comes to providing for the distribution of their "genealogical assets." The latter, in my case anyway, is a room full of books, journals, magazines, pamphlets, maps, photographs, brochures, newsletters, computer equipment and furniture (desk, chairs, file cabinets, tables, lamps, etc.). The files are loaded with folders bearing family and town names, historic events, and a bunch labeled "MISC." There are miles of computer printouts, hundreds of photocopies, and many "original" vital records. My desk is usually loaded with correspondence awaiting an answer either mine or from someone else. What should my wife do with all this stuff when I make the ultimate research trip - a personal meeting with my ancestors?

Some of our brighter colleagues say "My college library is getting all my stuff" or it's going to the local public library or to the LDS Family History Library in Salt Lake City or even to the Library of Congress. Well, I hate to be the one to tell you this, but unless you are a celebrity or a huge financial donor, these institutions probably won't want your material - they just don't have room for it. They would be grateful for a copy of your book, but they might not want the manuscript or research notes. The Mormons would appreciate a GEDCOM disk of your genealogy database files, but they don't want your paper pedigree charts or family group sheets.

So what is your spouse or children to do with all of your "stuff.?" They could really do a couple of dumb things with it if you don't provide guidance to them while you still can. It could be placed in the weekly trash collection and don't say "They wouldn't do that" because it unfortunately happens all the time. How about a "garage sale?" Now that is really scary, but it also happens every day. Remember all those old photos and tintypes you have seen in roadside flea markets? How about all those bargain genealogy books you bought because you got to that garage sale before the dealers did? They all had to come from someplace.

What should you do to insure the same distribution of your genealogical assets? Perhaps the first thing is to make a record of what you have and then try to keep it current. Show the acquisition date and how much you paid for each item on the inventory sheets. This is especially helpful for artifacts, collections, and books. A photographic record of these items, including those of rare books, could also be useful. Microfilm, microfiche and complete photocopies of books and some records have value. Back issues of many journals, newsletters, and magazines are also in demand by genealogists and therefore have value. However, if you don't tell them what is valuable, your heirs probably won't know.

Now that you have identified your assets, you need to tell someone what you want done with them. Maybe the simplest way is to prepare a letter to your heirs, but remember this lacks the force of law. If they want to, they can toss everything in the trash. A better way to provide for the distribution is in your will, particularly if you also designate sufficient funds to carry out your wishes. Your Last Will and Testament is also where you may make specific bequests: your copy of the 1898 edition of Burkes Peerage to your FGS Conference roommate or your old roll-top desk to your newest granddaughter. Your wishes can now be enforced by the courts, if necessary.

If you still want to have any of your assets given to your alma mater or a local library or anywhere else, personally contact that agency and discuss the possibility - right now. It won't come as a surprise to them and they should be able to advise you immediately of any conditions of acceptance. If you can support those conditions, ask for a written acknowledgment that can be placed with your will.

Some other things that you can do right now are to distribute copies of your research among your family, friends, and perhaps, local or national libraries. This is simple if you have progressed to the book-writing state, but don't be too concerned if you haven't. Many genealogists assemble their pedigree charts, group sheets, pertinent vital records, selected family photographs, and other important document in notebook form. The write a brief introduction, provide a table of contents, and sometimes an index, before having copies made for distribution. Afterwards, the notebook can be kept current with a New Year's letter which might include new charts and photos.

Computerized genealogical data can be distributed in the same way on diskette. Sometimes an envelope or jacket is provided in the notebook described above to house data disks. Another way some researchers try to insure the safeguarding of their electronic data is to submit it to the LDS Ancestral File or one or more of the other commercial collections. If you don't know how to do this consult your local genealogical society or Family History Center or even the public library for instructions.

Another thing you can do right now to benefit your heirs is to clean up your files. Eliminate unnecessary correspondence and duplicate copies of records. Toss out all those old printouts you made in 1984 on your Apple 2e Computer. Sell all the Genealogical Helper Magazines you have saved since 1973, because you will never open one of them again and you know it. If you get fifty cents each for them you can have a pretty good dinner. Give away all that old computer software that is taking up room on your bookshelves-it's probably not worth anything anyway. Label your photographs, and disketts too.

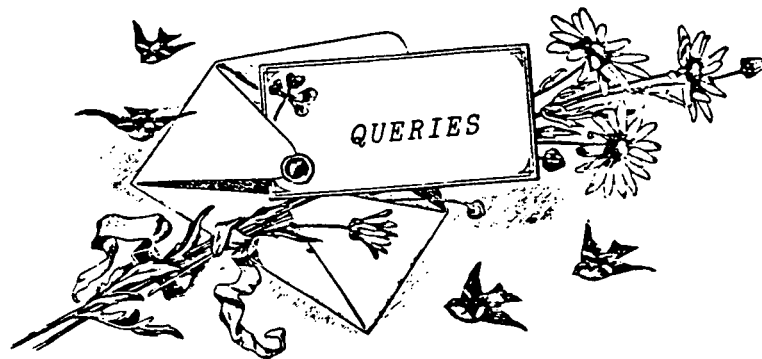

I find it a bit morbid, but you may wish to write your epitaph and select your tombstone now to insure future researchers will not encounter some of the same problems that you've had.

If you decide to follow some of these suggestions, when you do eventually meet your ancestors they may thank you for perpetuating their memory. They may also show you where you made some of your mistakes and be able to fill in a few of the blank spaces in your previous research.

Remember, do it now, there may be no tomorrow.
