

LAWRENCE WOOL MANUFACTURING COM'P.

This Company has refitted the Grist Mills formerly owned by James Blood, and is now prepared to

GRIND CORN, WHEAT, RYE, BUCKWHEAT &c.

At short notice, and at reasonable rates.

WOOL WANTED.

The highest cash price paid for Wool, Wheat, Corn and Rye.
We have on hand

A LARGE STOCK OF HOME MANUFACTURED CLOTHS,

Satinett, Cassimere, Blankets, and Jeans, Flannels and Yarn, which we will exchange for Wool and Grain. We want to get a large stock of Wool for the manufacture of Cloths.

J. STUDEBAKER.

LAWRENCE CIRCULATING LIBRARY

AND READING ROOM!

No. 90 Massachusetts Street,
OVER GEORGE LEIS' DRUG STORE,

Every effort is being made to make this Room pleasant and agreeable to all who may avail themselves of its advantages. Nearly every Kansas paper, together with St. Louis, Chicago and the principal Eastern papers will be found on file here. Magazine Literature, Scientific, Agriculture, and Mechanical Periodicals, together with Social, Moral and Religious reading will be upon the tables. The Library is being rapidly increased, and nearly ever department of Literature is represented. The room is open every day (Sundays excepted) from 9 A. M. to 10 P. M.

Terms for use of Library and Reading Room :

One Year,.....$5.00 | One Month..... .50

Those holding yearly or monthly tickets are entitled to draw one volume at a time or more than one by paying ten cents for each additional volume drawn.

J. S. BOUGHTON, Librarian.