IN MEMORIAM

IRMA KIDWELL died Saturday, November 12, 1994, at Lawrence Memorial Hospital and buried at Jamestown Cemetery, Jamestown, Kansas. She was born September 24, 1919, in Jamestown, the daughter of William INGLIS and Loretta Vincent GRAY. She married Richard KIDWELL on February 2, 1937, at Concordia. Irma graduated from Jamestown High School and lives in Jamestown, Concordia, Newton, Coffeyville and Joplin, Missouri, before moving to Lawrence in 1974. She was a homemaker and member of a Methodist Church in Coffeyville. She was a charter member (1976) and very active member of Douglas County, Kansas, Genealogical Society until the last several years, due to her health.

OLD SETTLER GONE

David T. WOODWARD, Nearly 80 Years God's Servant

David T. WOODWARD died August 14, 1906, at his home near Clinton. He left a wife and nine children to mourn his departure. Mr. WOODWARD was married three times and was the father of 22 children, nine of them now living. All of the living children were with their father when he died.

Mary Ann ANDERSON, the oldest child, makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. Sarah FLORY; J.R. WOODWARD is sheriff of this county; G. WOODWARD lives on his farm west of Belvoir; C.E. WOODWARD is a resident of Wakarusa township, Laura WARREN lives in La Junta, Colo.; Frances MCKINZIE lives in Marion township; Abraham WOODWARD lives with his mother at the old homestead; Minnie SWALLOW lives in Topeka and Valentine WOODWARD also lives in the capital city.

The funeral services were attended by a large number of old friends.... J.B. GRAY of Vinland, assisted by Harry T. WHITE, Elder Jasper SKINNER of Kansas City, and Rev. OLIVER of the Clinton circuit. The remains were taken to the Clinton cemetery where they were interred.

The pall bearers were N.E. STEVENSON, a grandson, A. H. WOODWARD, a grandson; Russell WOODWARD, a grandson, Herbert THURBER, a grandson, Walter HARRELL, a great grandson, and Fred FLORY, a great grandson.

David T. WOODWARD was born in Powells Valley, West Virginia, July 10, 1817; moved to Illinois in 1836 at the age of 19 years. At the tender age of eleven years the subject of this sketch was converted and was thereafter a lifelong member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Even in his childhood he felt called to preach and was ordained a minister early in life. Mr. WOODWARD began preaching at the age of 19. It was while attending a big revival, such as they had in the olden times, that he felt the spirit move him and he arose then and there and began preaching. He preached all through his long life.

Mr. WOODWARD preached in three counties in Illinois and then moved to Kansas. He came to Kansas in 1856 and settled in what is now Clinton township. He remained on this farm the balance of his life. Mr. WOODWARD preached the gospel through all the trying times when it took courage and confidence to speak the word of God. In his lifetime he preached in 104 different places and held many protracted meetings. He preached as high as 50 times in some of the places.

Mr. WOODWARD was a preacher because he wanted to serve the Lord. He never took a dollar for his work but was always foremost in the efforts to save souls. After preaching the four score years of his life, his eyesight failed, but this man of God continued to preach, his family taking him from place to place. He was a devoted man, a man in whom there was no guile or shadow of turning from the right. He was a stalwart character, a man tried and true, and his long long life was a continual service for his Master.

ORIGINAL PLAT OF THE CITY OF LAWRENCE IS FOUND;
MADE ON SEARL SURVEY OF OCTOBER, 1854

One of the few original plats of the city of Lawrence after a survey made by A.D. SEARL has been discovered by Irving HILL.

The survey made by SEARL in October, 1854, is believed to have been merely a preliminary idea or vision of the city of Lawrence since it was prior to the time that the land for the townsite was patented.

The map, made by L.B. BRADFORD and company, lithographers, Boston, is labeled "Lawrence City, Territory of Kansas." The spelling "Kansas" was evidently peculiar to the time. The spelling for the river skirting Lawrence was also Kansas.

SEARL's plat covered a piece of land two miles in width and extending from what would be First street if the present street numbering was extended northward to what is now Sixteenth street. It included two blocks farther west than California street and Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia streets were included east of the present Maryland street on the extreme east edge of the present Lawrence.

So far as present records show, the original townsite of Lawrence was a strip of land one mile wide extending to about the present Fourth street on the north and was about one mile long on the western boundary. SEARL's map shows no platting north of the river.

That the map maker had vision is shown in the fact that a body of land on Mount Oread where the University now stands was labeled "Capital Hill and County Buildings." A college campus was designated in what is now the West Hills district, included in the city on this old map.

South park was designated in its present form save that it extended from Kentucky street to Rhode Island street. Four blocks of ground were designated as four parks named LaFayette, Hamilton, Washington, and Franklin. Near where Clinton park is now located were Fulton and Clinton parks.

The map has been in HILL's possession more than a quarter of a century although he did not realize the fact until a few days ago. When HILL bought the site of his present home from the widow of Ferdinand FULLER, the house built by FULLER on land which he had patented was still standing and the HILL family lived there for a short time.

When the present home of the HILLS was built, numerous articles were moved from the old FULLER house to the attic of the new house. Included in those articles was a roll of maps. That was 25 years ago. Recently Mrs. HILL found these maps and showed them to Mr. HILL. He recognized the SEARL map as one which has been sought at various times by different persons.

He remembered that C. C. STEWART had at one time sought such a map and took his discovery to him. Stewart plans to place the map in some place where its preservation will be assured. It is in an excellent state of preservation.

A MILLION DOLLAR ESTATE

Mrs. Hattie Lininger Whiteford, widow of the late Silas Whiteford, who died at his home in Osage Township, Miami County, Kansas, January 22, 1929, was appointed administratrix of the estate of her husband by Probate Judge Rossman, in this city, on January 30, 1929, and her bond for one million dollars was approved. It was signed by the widow and all of the heirs.

Mr. Whiteford left no will and, under the Kansas law, one-half of the estate goes to the widow and the other half to the sons and daughters. His first wife, Eva McGlothlin, whom he married in January, 1875, at Lawrence, Kansas, died in this county in March 1893 in the same home where her husband, Mr. Whiteford, died last week. To them were born eight children, six of whom survive and are living, namely: Anna, who is the wife of Leroy W. Grant, with her husband in Osawatomie; Lillian E., who is the wife of Harry E. Randell, both living in New York City, New York; Susan Whiteford West, the wife of Ed West, both in Overland Park, Kansas; Nellie Whiteford Kendall, wife of Ed. Kendall, both in Kansas City, Missouri; Hugh C. Whiteford, cashier of the First National Bank of Osawatomie; and residing there, and Henry Clay Whiteford, living on his farm near Beagle, in this country. On Christmas, 1897, Mr. Silas S. Whiteford and Miss Hattie L. Lininger were married in this county and Mrs. Whiteford went into the home. To them were born four children, three of whom survive -- Charles V. Whiteford, who is now cashier of the Fontana State Bank in the county; Joseph S. and Ivan M. Whiteford at the homestead with their mother.

Coming to this county in the spring of 1875, with his young wife, Mr. Whiteford got work as a cattle herder, but he brought with him about seven hundred dollars that he had saved up while working for Mr. McGee in Douglas County. In June, 1876, he bought his first property here....

SPINNING YARNS: The Schriever Family
by Phyllis J. Douglas

The first effort at SCHRIEVER genealogy was made by Fran SABIN. In 1969-70 she contacted some of William SCHRIEVER'S children and obtained facts, stories, etc. to put together a mini-family tree as a Christmas present for my mother. She also shared her work with other members of the family. Dorothy SCHRIEVER has been busily engaged with genealogy for a number of years. Byron and I both became interested in genealogy at a later time.

To me, one of the best things about genealogy searching is that in the process of finding out all of this information about my ancestors, I get to know them and in a sense "we become friends." This has really happened and because of it, I want to share with you some of the things I have found and share some of the stories I have heard about them. I do not intend that this be a scholarly work, however, it will be true to the best of my knowledge.

First of all, I would like to discuss the spelling of the name SCHRIEVER. In my searching on our family, I have found this name spelled SCHREFER, SCHAFER, SCHRIEBER, SCHRENER and SCHRIEFER. There are a lot of reasons for this. In the 1800's, especially the early years, those who could read and write spelled the way they heard a word. The SCHRIEFER family obviously spoke with an accent. Therefore, it is easy to see how the various spellings came about. It is true that our grandfather changed the spelling of the name, about the time he went to Kansas. On the 8th day of December 1877 he sold the land that he inherited from his father. He signed the deed, J.W. SCHRIEFER. In the 1885 Kansas census, William is enumerated as a member of the Charles PROEBSTEL household and his last name is spelled SCHRIEVER. The SCHRIEFER family that remained in Indiana (William's brother Henry) continued to spell their name with an "f". Their names are spelled that way on their death records and on their gravestones. Mother says, "When we wrote to the Indiana SCHRIEFERS, we also spelled their name with an "f".

I will begin with the earliest ancestor that I have information on. Then I will take each generation in a direct line to William SCHRIEVER. By direct line I mean that all of the ancestors are related to all of us. I will end with a short biography of each of William and Nannie's children.

The earliest SCHRIEFER Family that I will tell you about is, at this point, a penciled-in family. I am very sure that they are related to our great grandfather, Frederick W. SCHRIEFER. I have some documents that back up my theory, but at this point I have been unable to find the evidence that would make it a fact.

Gerhard Heinrich Schriefer and Elizabeth Miller

In the 1800's the City of Baltimore collected an immigration fee of one dollar for each person over one year of age coming into Baltimore Harbor. G. H. SCHRIEFER (Gerhard Heinrich), his wife, Elizabeth and their seven children were on that list for January 1, 1846.

In March of 1846, Gerhard Heinrich SCHRIEFER and his seven children reported for naturalization in Ripley County, Indiana. In this document Gerhard Heinrich states that they "were born in the jurisdiction of Osnabruck in the Kingdom of Hannover and that they came from the place of their birth and have settled permanently in the County of Ripley and State of Indiana." The oldest son, Ernst Henrich, 24 years old, applied for his own naturalization. The father, Gerhard Heinrich, applied for himself and six children. Those children are as follows: John Frederick, age 19, Maria Eleanora, age 18, Maria Elsaban, age 15, Frederick Wilhelm, age 13, Gerhard Henry, age 11 and John Henry, age 9.

Do you note the way the same name has been given to two or more children? Could they possibly have a child named Fredreich W. (as is on his gravestone) when they also have a John Frederick and a Frederick Wilhelm?

Gerhard Henrick SCHRIEFER bought land in Spencer County. On the third day of February, 1854, he bought 40 acres of land from John and Elizabeth SPECHT for $150. He bought 40 acres of land from Ignatius and Elizabeth MASTERSON for $150, and he bought 40 acres of land from Andrew and Barbara WETZEL; for $190. Then on the 8th of March, 1854, he wrote a will bequeathing this land to his three sons, Frederick William, Henry and George SCHRIEFER.

Later, a probated will, dated March 9, 1859, named his oldest daughter, Elisabeth SEARBAMAER, son Arnest H. SCHREAFER, son Frederick, daughter Mary E. AHRING, and two youngest sons, Gerred Henry and John Henry SHREAFER. This will was dated 30 January 1855 and was witnessed by Andrew WETZEL, John H. DANNING, John SPECHT and Ernst SCHRIEFER. I believe the probate date to be close to the date of his death and because these are records of Spencer County, Indiana, I believe that he died there. I have not been able to find any record of his death, nor have I been able to find a burial place for him.

There are two members of this family in the 1860 Indiana Spencer County, Clay Twp. (Santa Claus) Census. They are John H. SCHRIEFER, age 24, his wife Anna (SCHIERBAUM) and a young son, William F. and Henry SCHRIEFER, age 25, his wife Anna Mary (WETZEL). Both were neighbors of Frederick SCHRIEFER. These same family members are on the 1870 census and Ernest SCHRIEFER, his wife Sena, their nine children are also enumerated for Carter Twp.

There are two other families that link Frederick and Louisa to the Gerhard Heinrich SCHRIEFERS. Their names are SCHIERBAUM and WETZEL. The SCHIERBAUM family is also found on that 1846 Baltimore City list. They are listed along with the SCHRIEFERS as E. H. SCHIERBAUM, age 23, his wife Maria, age 25, and a child Gerhard Henry, age 1.

In 1860, the SCHRIERBAUM family and the WETZEL family were neighbors of Frederick. Both WETZEL and SCHRIERBAUM attested to Frederick's will of 1857 and they were later, in 1867, assigned guardians of Frederick and Louisa's children.

These are the facts above that lead me to believe that Gerhard Heinrich, Elizabeth and their children, from Hannover, Germany, were the family of Frederick W. SCHRIEFER.

Brooks MATNEY and Jane YOUNG

Brooks MATNEY was perhaps the son of William MATNEY and Jane BROOKS. This name is spelled many ways: MATTINGLY (considered the original spelling and probably came from Ireland), MATONEE, MATINEE, MATINLER, MCMATNEY, MATINGLEY (many spellings.) He was born in Virginia ca 1775. He married Jane (Jennit) YOUNG 23 Dec. 1794, in Washington County, Virginia. Jane was the daughter of Daniel YOUNG.

They had ten children: Walter MATNEY, born 6 June 1796; Daniel David MATNEY, born 5 July 1801; Charles MATNEY, born 4 Nov. 1803; Jean Ginney MATTNEY, born 10 August 1806; William MATNEY, born 15 Jan, 1808; Margaret (Peggy) MATNEY (MATENLER), born 15 Sept. 1810; Elizabeth MATNEY Born 18 Feb. 1812; Jefferson Matney, born 17 Nov. 1814, and Nancy Matney, born 27 March 1818.

Brooks died 13 Feb. 1828 in Tazewell County, Virginia. Jane died before April 1847 in Tazewell County, Virginia.

Charles Matney and Abigail Brown

Charles MATNEY, son of Brooks MATNEY, married Abigail BROWN, who was born in Virginia, 19 Dec, 1807. They were married 5 February 1829 in Tazewell County, Virginia. They had five children, one girl and four boys. All of the children were born in Tazewell County, Virginia. Matilda, the oldest was our great grandmother.

Charles and Abigail and their children and most of Charles' family left Tazewell County about 1844 and immigrated westward. First they settled in Parkville, Missouri, then later in Westport, Missouri.

Charles and Abigail's children were: Matilda Jane, born 8 Nov. 1829; George Q.A. was born 28 Sept., 1831; John R., born 23 Jan. 1834; David B., born 3 Aug., 1836 and Elisha McDaniel, born 1838.

Sometime after 1860 Charles, Abigail, their adult children and many of Charles' family began purchasing land in Wyandotte County, Kansas which is just across the state line from Missouri. They settled in that area and continued to live there until they died. Abigail Brown MATNEY died 28 Nov. 1865 of smallpox. Charles MATNEY died on 6 Oct. 1891. They are both buried in the Maple Hill Cemetery in Argentine, Kansas. Also buried in this cemetery are all of their children except Elisha.

SHAWNEE ELECTION

The following is the result of the late election amongst our Shawnee Indian neighbors:

First Chief:	Joseph Parks
Second Chief:	Graham Rogers
Council:	Henry Bluejacket, Dougherty Tooly, Simon Hill, Tucker
Clerk:	Matthew King
Interpreter:	Charles Bluejacket

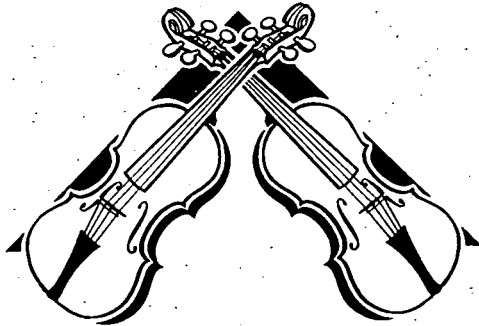

The Council, we are informed, are new officers, except Mr. Henry Bluejacket; and what is better, are said to be all anti-slavery men, opposed to the past pro-slavery influences which have been exerted amongst the Nation. Mr. Bluejacket is a man of intelligence and ability, upright and honorable in all his transactions.

RESEARCH SURPRISES: MAKING THEM HAPPEN

1. WHAT DO YOU DO WITH YOUR BRILLIANT IDEAS?

If you are a really dedicated researcher, often times an idea will pop into your head about solving a particular genealogical problem and you'll rush to write it down. If this happens when you are in a car, it will probably get written on a scrap of paper in your purse. If you are at work, it will probably be written on a sticky note and also stuck in your purse. If you are sitting at your desk at home and have one of these brilliant ideas, you may stick a note up on your bulletin board. Since you are a very busy person, these little notes to yourself may collect for a long time.

People, these bits and scraps of paper, crumpled and thumbtacked, are a terrible way to treat your brilliant ideas, any or all of which may provide a definitive answer to a very elusive problem. Here's a better way to handle them.

Using a 8-1/2 x 11 piece of white paper, which you will call a "WORK LOG", turn it sideways and divide it into three columns. Label the first column "CENSUS WORK", the second column "LIBRARIES" and the last column "TO DO".

Now draw lines across, creating blocks into which you can enter your brilliant ideas! Examples of how entries might look are:

(Census Column) - "1900/1910 Hamilton Co., OH for F.M. Ryland"
(Libraries) - LAPUBLIC/1890 city directory for Israel Mark
(To Do) - Wrote inquiry to DCGS quarterly!

If any items are really urgent, I color in a red flag to get my attention. I put these pages in a 3-ring binder and they go with me everywhere when I research.

This binder holds the makings of all kinds of research surprises. Your brilliant ideas won't get lost and will constantly be in front of you to jog your memory.

From a talk given by Bobby Title

OUR CHURCHES...

First Assembly of God

The First Assembly of God Church located at 5th and Baker Streets, Baldwin, Kansas, held its first services May 4, 1958. Their first place of worship was Tablock Hall, 1614 College Street. There were twenty present at the first meeting. The church was set in order by Rev. A.J. KRIMMER, district presbyter of the Assemblies of God, with nine charter members which were the following: Rev. and Mrs. Roy EICHELBERGER, Gary EICHELBERGER, Mrs. Zola COLLINS, Mrs. Mildred SCHOMER, Regina Sue COLLINS, Alice LYMAN, and Mr. and Mrs. R.H. MORGAN.

Rev. Roy EICHELBERGER pastored the church from May 4, 1958 until November 25, 1959. Rev. and Mrs. R.P. ROUTH accepted the pastorate then and pastored until October, 1965. The property at 5th and Baker Streets was purchased on June 8, 1960 and a building permit was purchased from Baldwin City, April, 1962.

Three carpenters, members of the church, did the major part of the building. They are as follows: Mr. C.O. COLLINS, Mr. Grady LAYTON, and Rev. R.P. ROUTH. Their labor was donated. The City of Baldwin donated the digging of the foundation.

Rev. E.W. WEEMS became pastor in January, 1966. Rev. Robert COOPER became pastor of the local church August 23, 1970 as the fourth pastor to serve the Baldwin church.

Reprinted from the Baldwin City Centennial Edition
October 1970

I was once a normal person till I climbed my family tree,
Now that my Ancestors have met they make a battleground of me.

My grandpa Pat from Ireland makes me dance with lively feet,
While my English one, Sir Oliver, walks sedately down the street.

My Swedish grandma Hilda gives away each dime I make,
While my Scottish one shudders at the things I waste and break.

My grandma from Paris laughs and flirts the live-long day,
And my great-grandma from Plymouth turns her back the other way.

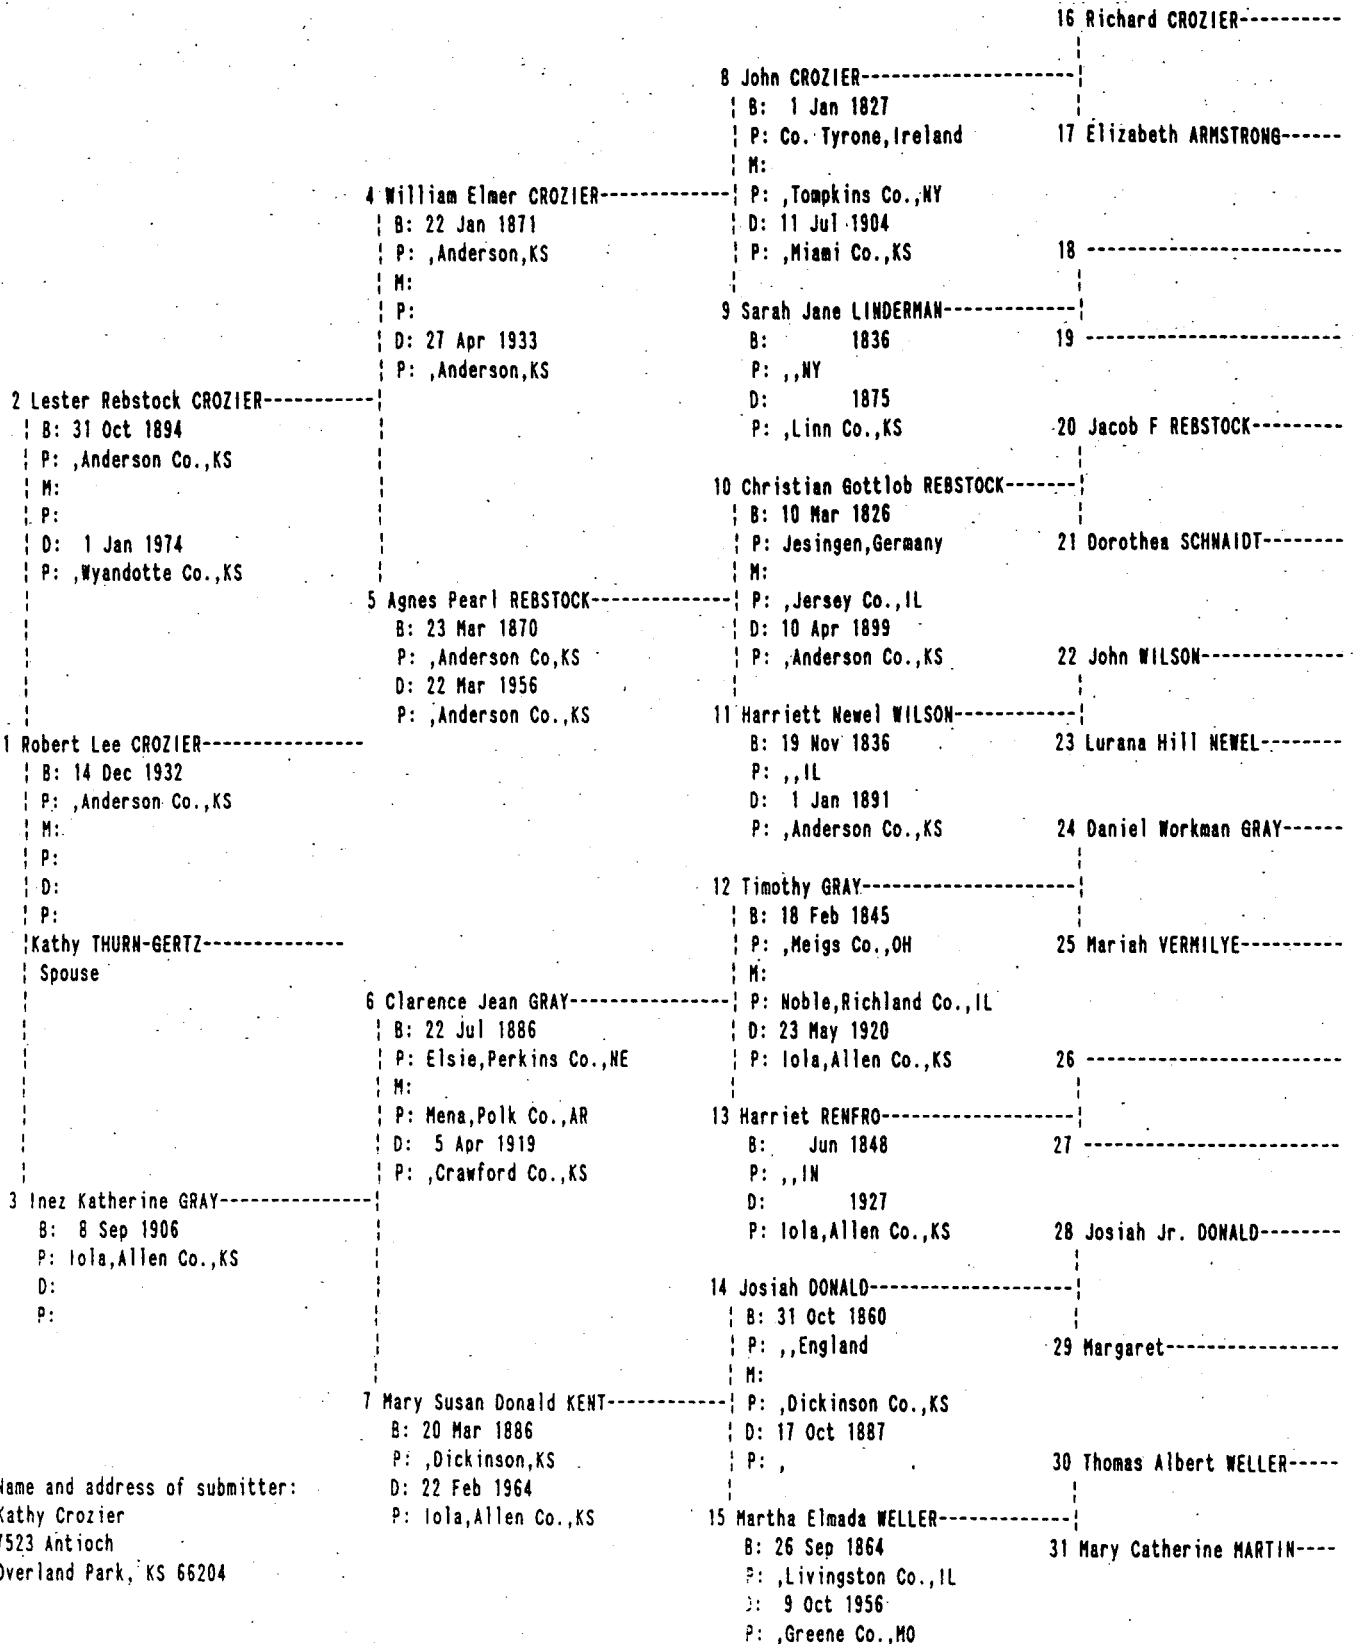

Thus they argue, thus they differ; how I wish they would agree,
For I never can determine just which one is really me!

QUERY

DULINSKY

What happened to G-G-Grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Sylvester DULINSKY, after 1865? Her husband was killed during Quantrill's raid (also would like to know where he's buried.) They had a hotel-saloon at south edge of Lawrence. I do have information on most of their children. Vera DAKIN, 37017 Mission Bellview, Drexel, Missouri 64742-6275.
