Report of the Librarian

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE LAWRENCE FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Herewith is respectfully submitted my report of the work of the Lawrence Free Public Library during its eighth fiscal year ending December 31st, 1912.

The growth of a public library in usefulness to the public is the measure of its value. This being true, the value of the Lawrence Public Library is rapidly increasing.

The past year shows a growth, not only in circulation, but also in reference work which keeps the entire staff busy many hours a day giving assistance to the numerous "seekers after knowledge."

The High School students and the club women have long been patrons but to them are added University students who come to us in increasing numbers for reference work of all kinds, primarily work with periodicals and the cumulative indexes. The fact that our magazine files—though the titles are few—are now practically complete, and that none are at the bindery during the school year, gives us the opportunity to be of material assistance.

For several years past, we have kept, by the use of registration slips, a very accurate record of books used for reference in the reading rooms. Since the acquisition of the new stacks and the necessary change in the position of the delivery desk, it has been impossible to keep a statistical record of any value. These books are now largely used in the reference room back of the desk, and not so much in the reading rooms as formerly—thus decreasing the use of registration slips. Judging by the amount of time spent by the staff in obtaining reference material, this branch of the library's usefulness has nearly doubled.

While congratulating ourselves that this is true, it must be admitted that owing to the lack of sufficient help, much of the necessary details of administration, such as cataloging, filing, repairing books, preparing for bindery, compiling purchase lists and so forth are somewhat in arrears and must of necessity remain so unless extra help for a few hours each day is provided.

The circulation has increased 3708 over the circulation of 1911. The increase in the various departments is as follows:

Adult fiction.....	1104
Adult non-fiction.....	653
Juvenile fiction.....	1541
Juvenile non-fiction.....	410
Total.....	3708

The complete circulation statistics for the year are as follows:
Adult fiction.....	31294
Adult non-fiction.....	5484
Juvenile fiction.....	10515
Juvenile non-fiction.....	1511
Total.....	48804

Total.....

The largest monthly circulation was in March—5448. The smallest in September—3227.

A comparison of the circulation statistics for the eight year's work will no doubt be of interest. The fluctuations are marked, and for no known cause, with, perhaps, the exception of the decrease after the first year. The circulation for 1905, the first year of the library as a free public library, was 50,903, the largest in its history. This, no doubt, was due to the fact that the library was new, and the circulation free.

The statistics are as follows:

1905.....	50,903
1906.....	43,723
1907.....	41,343
1908.....	45,122
1909.....	49,761
1910.....	46,725
1911.....	45,096
1912.....	48,804

Two excellent changes have been made in the rules governing the borrower's cards. The first removes all restrictions which regulate the issuing of non-fiction cards, and the second removes entirely the age limit of juvenile cards and lowers the age of adult cards.

Registration cards now number 3870, an addition of 1233 during the year. The accessions number 780, distributed in the various classes as follows:

Bound periodicals.....	58
Adult fiction.....	214
Adult non-fiction.....	286
Reference department.....	6
German department.....	1
Juvenile fiction.....	90
Juvenile non-fiction.....	121
Juvenile periodicals.....	4
Total.....	780

The number lost and worn out and withdrawn from circulation was 240, leaving a net gain of 540.

This makes the total number of books now in circulation 11,526, divided in classes as follows:

Bound periodicals.....	1,367
Adult fiction.....	2,801
Adult non-fiction.....	4,330
Reference department.....	332
German department.....	391
Juvenile fiction.....	1,307
Juvenile non-fiction.....	881
Juvenile periodicals.....	117
Total.....	11,526

On January 1st, 1905, the library opened with 4,953 volumes exclusive of public documents—and the accessions have averaged 822 each year.

Of the 780 accessions for 1912, 704 were by purchase, 17 of which were from the Perkins Memorial Fund, and 76 were by gift. Among the latter was Mr. Grovenor's Christmas gift, the 5 vol. edition of Hasting's Bible Dictionary.

There have been 484 volumes rebound and 62 volumes of current periodicals bound, a total of 546, 104 less than last year.

Mr. George Leis presented the library with two views of Lawrence, 1856 and 1880 respectively, and a poster advertising the State Fair held in Bismark Grove September 13-20, 1883. These are all valuable historically.

The list of donors of books is as follows: Mr. G. Grovenor, Mr. M. G. Manley, Col. H. L. Moore, Mr. C. S. Hall, Miss Grace Beecher, Sen. Chas. Curtis, Miss Ida Alford, Miss Mary Beecher, Mr. J. D. Faxon, Talbot Clingman, Mrs. Geo. J. Barker, Mrs. C. S. Hall, Miss Coathupe, Mrs. R. B. Preuszner, Mrs. Mary E. Wilder, Teutonia Club, First Church of Christ, Scientist, the authors and publishers of various books and the compilers of proceedings of a number of national organizations.

Mr. Harry Dick as usual has furnished supplies.

The library talks by the librarians to the High School Freshmen were given in October. This work was begun in 1906, and has proven a help to teachers and librarians, as well as a great benefit to the young people.

The childrens' story hour was resumed the early part of November. Owing to the pressure of regular duties, neither Miss Edwards nor those who had previously assisted her seemed free to take up this outside work, and Miss Hannah Mitchell was employed for the ensuing year. An average of 80 has been in attendance. The stories told include Spenser's Faerie Queen, continued from week to week as a serial, Undine, The Pied Piper of Hamelin, The King of the Golden River, together with some others of a lighter nature. One interesting part of this feature of the library work is the development of the children's mental capacity as evidenced by the fact that the classics are more popular now than the simpler stories were formerly, and hold the attention of even the youngest listeners.

As each year shows a growth in the usefulness of the library to the public, more and more the Lawrence Library is an educational asset and may justly be considered a very live part in the educational system of our city.

Respectfully submitted,
NELLIE G. BEATTY,
Librarian.
