HISTORY OF THE FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH OF LAWRENCE

Society member Zona Smith recently compiled this history and membership list of the First Christian Church located at 1000 Kentucky, Lawrence, KS. The church is affiliated with the Disciples of Christ of the USA and Canada. The church burned in 1947, but some records were salvaged. The chronological list of members was obtained from those records remaining from the period before 1905.

Disciples of Christ church records are also housed at the Disciples of Christ Historical Society, 1101 19th Ave. South, Nashville, TN 37212.

During the year 1883, a small group of people affiliated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) met from house to house on Sundays for church services. As they grew in number they were able to obtain halls for meeting places. On January 12, 1884, they formally organized themselves as a church with about twenty-five members. The first elders were Henry NEWBY, to whom much of the credit has been given for the actual organization, William BURTON, Addison HYDE, and D.P. DUTTON. The first Deacons were H.C. PATTERSON, who has been termed "one of the mainstays of the work during the days of struggle," J.H. BUCKLEY, A. BURTON, and R.A. KIER. J.M. GRAHAM was the first clerk of the church.

A charter from the State of Kansas was applied for on June 13, 1884, and was granted on June 19, 1884. The first board of trustees was composed of the following: Henry NEWBY, William BURTON, Addison HYDE, H.C. PATTERSON, and J.H. BUCKLEY.

The newly formed congregation purchased from the Universalist their church building on the corner of 11th and Kentucky Streets. On September 15, 1887, J.T. WILLIAMS assumed the debt on the old building as a memorial to his daughter, Mrs. Lillian B. GRAHAM. With the burden of debt lifted for them, the members of the congregation were encouraged and worked even harder than before for the Kingdom of God.

In March 1907, H.C. WILHITE conducted a great revival meeting in South Park, where a tabernacle seating 2,000 people had been built by the men of the church. The tabernacle was erected in one week. This revival added 300 to the church and made larger quarters imperative. The church trustees soon sold the old building to the Friends and planned erection of a new building. During the erection of the church the congregation met for a while in the old brick church which stood where the Masonic Temple is now located. This was the original Methodist Church. When the Masonic Order found it necessary to clear the ground for the Temple, services were held in the large hall which was in the Fraternal Aid Building.

The new church was erected at 10th and Kentucky Streets and dedicated December 13, 1908, during the ministry of C.L. MILTON.

Early in the year of 1947, in the interest of progress and to deepen the spirit of worship, it was decided to remodel the sanctuary and change it from the Akren type to chancel type with the Communion Table and baptistry being the center of attention during services. Mr. A.F. WICKES, architect for the Board of Church Extension, visited Lawrence and planned the changes.

On December 8, 1947, a fire broke out in the office of the church, destroying all equipment and supplies. Most of the membership records were saved and copied.

- (29) John O. WATTLES, died 21 Sep 1859, Linn Co., KS at about age 40. Spent some time at New Harmony, IN. Residing in Tippecanoe Co., IN in 1853. Helped establish and was president of "The Grand Prairie Harmonical Association," a social reform community, in 1853, Prairie Twp., Warren Co., IN. Moved to Moneka, KS, where he had a claim adjoining his brother Augustus. Married Esther __, who was living in 1878.

(28) Augustus WATTLES, son of Erastus and Sarah (THOMAS) WATTLES, born 25 Aug 1807, Lebanon, CT, died 19 Dec 1867, Mound City, KS. Entered Lane Theological Seminary near Cincinnati, OH, where he studied for the Presbyterian ministry and organized schools for black boys. Traveled throughout Ohio and the country establishing more schools and working for abolition of slavery. Bought land in Mercer Co, OH, where he continued his ministry by giving freed slaves title to portions of the land. He also helped school blacks to be self-supporting when they attained freedom. In 1848 his health failed and he moved his family to a farm on the Ohio River about 40 miles above Cincinnati. In the spring of 1855 moved his wife and four children in three covered wagons to Kansas to prevent it becoming a slave state, reaching Lawrence 7 May 1855. He took up farming near Bloomington in Clinton Twp., Douglas Co., KS. On May 22 he was elected to the Kansas legislature, which met at Ft. Riley on July 1st, only to have his seat taken from him by Missourians. During that summer he commuted to Ft. Riley to work for the fort commander and to care for those struck by a cholera epidemic. In November of that year, while he was engaged in work for the government at Ft. Riley, he lost two horses he had brought from IN when they were used to spread the alarm that the Missouri raiders were coming. During that winter, one of the coldest on record, he assisted in distribution of clothing and provisions to isolated farms and communities where residents had been robbed or had their homes burned. In August 1856 the free-state army camped near his home at his invitation, during which time he fed them and cared for their sick. After Quantrill's raid destroyed the Herald of Freedom office in Lawrence, he brought from Pawnee a printing press and assisted in installing it. At about the time the first issue came out, 2 Nov 1856, he became the paper's assistant editor. His resources were so depleted that he was forced to sell his land. In 1857 he led settlers to Linn Co., KS, where earlier free-state settlers had been driven out. He established a claim adjoining his brother John, and they were both among the six incorporators of the town of Moneka, Feb 1857. Here he operated a station on the Kansas Underground Railroad in his home. In May of 1858 he was in Leavenworth on business where he met John Brown just returning to Kansas from the East and convinced Brown to come back to Linn Co. with him, where Brown made his headquarters for a time at Augustus' home. By 1859 the pro-slavery sympathizers had driven away the residents of Moneka and put a price of $1,000 on Augustus' head. After John Brown's disastrous attack on Harper's Ferry, VA, Augustus joined a party attempting Brown's rescue from jail, but the rescue was never sanctioned by Brown himself and so did not take place. Augustus was summoned before a senate committee investigating those who may have financed or known about Brown's plans. He was detained in Washington during the hearings, during which time he appeared for various matters concerning KS. Sent by the Indian Dept. to inspect the condition and activities of Indians in KS when the Civil War began. After the emancipation proclamation, he assisted those newly freed to become self-sufficient. His health began failing, however, and he was forced to return home, where he died at age 69. Married Susan E. LOWE, a teacher who volunteered to teach one of his schools in Whitesborough, NY. May have married 2nd Mary __. Children:

(30) Theodore W. WATTLES, born about 1840

(31) female WATTLES, m. Hon. O.E. MORSE of Mound City, KS

(32) Stephen O. WATTLES. Held rank of Lt. Col. when he took command of the First Indian home guard, Carthage, MO, 11 Jul 1862.

(33) At least one other child. No further information given to the editor.

CLAIM OF WILLIAM J. CARD

This claim can be found in "Kansas Claims," House Reports, 36th Congress, 2nd Session, Vol. 2 at the Spencer Research Library, Governments Document Section, University of Kansas (call number 1107). Researched by the editor.

No. 427

In the matter of the petition of William J. CARD.

Dwight W. SCOUTEN, of lawful age, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he is acquainted with William J. CARD; that he is a citizen of Kansas, and resides near Bloomington, in Douglas County; know of his having incurred losses during the difficulties of 1856, by way of loss of property, to wit: One cornfield of seven or eight acres, the property of Mr. CARD, was entirely destroyed by (in the main) irresponsible persons engaged in the difficulties; deponent saw persons with teams in the field gathering corn, this was in the fall of 1856; the corn was worth about sixty to seventy-five cents per bushel; it grew upon bottom land - "old ground" - and would have yielded between sixty and seventy-five bushels to the acre; the field would have yielded about (450) four hundred and fifty bushels.

DWIGHT W. SCOUTEN

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of June, A.D. 1859.

(L.S.) H.J. STRICKLER, Notary Public

William J. CARD, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he made a statement of his actual losses incurred during the difficulties of 1856, before H.J. STRICKLER, late commissioner for auditing claims; which statement was true and correct to the best of the knowledge and belief of this deponent; this deponent therefore respectfully asks that the proofs, papers, and testimony taken before said commissioner, upon which he made his award in my favor, may be received by the board of commissioners appointed in accordance with the provisions of an act entitled "An act to provide for the adjustment and payment of claims," as his petition and testimony under the present law; your petitioner would further represent that he settled in Kansas Territory in the year 1855, and has resided near Bloomington, Douglas county, ever since; this deponent would further represent that he has never received compensation or indemnity for said loss in any way whatever.

WILLIAM J. CARD

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of June, A.D. 1859.

(L.S.) HIRAM J. STRICKLER, Notary Public

D.W. SCOUTEN, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That on or about the 15th of October, A.D. 1856, he passed the field of W.J. CARD, in which field he saw some persons who were engaged in loading corn from said field upon a wagon that they had with them; that these men, to his knowledge, were not employed by the said W.J. CARD to load said wagon; and that he, this affiant, verily believes that the said men intended to carry away and appropriate to their own use without the knowledge or consent of said W.J. CARD, the said corn; that the said field consisted of about seven acres, all of which was under cultivation.

DWIGHT W. SCOUTEN

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence this 14th day of June, A.D. 1859. Witness my hand and the seal of the second district court of Kansas Territory.

(L.S.) L.W. ARTHUR, Clerk,
by LOUIS CARPENTER, Deputy.

A SMITH FAMILY THAT LIVED NEAR TWIN MOUND

Mrs. Doris Matney of Tecumseh, Kansas, sent this information to Martha Parker, who has donated her letter to the Watkins Museum. Mrs. Matney does not say where she got her information.

Irvin H. SMITH, 1830-1874.

Line HECOX and Irv SMITH were friends of Captain JACOBS before the Civil War started. Line and Irv took wagon trains of merchandise over the Santa Fe Trail, so Captain JACOBS was apparently looking forward to a good visit with them at some fort along the trail. (In reference to Captain Jacobs' letter of 13 November 1864.)

Just before he died, Irvin SMITH sent for Henry HIATT to have him make out a will. He left everything to the school teacher, Mary C. "Mother" JOHNSON. Her first task was to put markers on the graves. These were replaced by Nela about 1963/4.

Celinda B. SMITH, 1840-1874.

Grace Nin SMITH, died 29 Sep. 1874 at age 8 mo., 25 days.

Other children, I think. They were about the age of my Dad, Theron HIATT, born 1868.

Clark SMITH

Pearl SMITH

Percy SMITH

Nela SMITH. She died in Oregon shortly after 1964, and was past 90.

Grace B. SMITH was half-sister of Linus HECOX.

In CHARLTON's Court: This morning Chas. SMITH was brought before Justice CHARLTON on charge of stealing coal from Union Pacific trains. His preliminary trial was set for next Monday. The warrant has been out for SMITH for some time, but it was only last night that he was found.

Wm. WHITE was also taken into CHARLTON's court this morning for trial on charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was an old offender and was fined $10 and costs. He could not raise the money and is now in jail.

COUNTRY NEWS: LAKEVIEW. Mr. CROWDER has rented a farm on Deer creek and will move next week.

BALDWIN: W.H. HOUTT, a teacher of German, is endeavoring to organize a class here in town to take a six weeks' course in conversational German.

Miss Nellie HOWLEY died at her home Monday noon after a long and severe sickness.

The store of Steve STURDEVANT's at Baldwin was broken into and about $100 of goods taken on Monday night. The robbers were tracked as far north as the bridge across the Wakarusa but there all traces were lost.

CITY ITEMS: The CARRUTHERS cases regarding the title to certain tracts of land in the city were given a final decision in district court today. In several of the cases motions for a new trial were filed.

DOUGLAS COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY GENEALOGIST AVAILABLE

The Society's Board recently voted to raise the rates charged by its genealogist for research, yet we think they still remain reasonable. The new rates are $10.00 per hour of research, plus our costs for copying and postage. The new rates go into effect 1 April 1990. To retain the genealogist's services, send a letter outlining the information you need to the Society to the genealogist's attention. Please indicate if you have a budget which you do not wish her to exceed. It is also a good idea to tell her all you know about the person you seek and where you got the information so that she will not duplicate your efforts.

DOUGLAS COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY MEMBERS' FIVE-GENERATION CHARTS ARE DUE JULY 1, 1990 if you want them in the upcoming publication. Members are limited to three charts per member. You may update previously submitted charts (please indicate they are updates in an attached note). If at all possible, please submit typed charts.
