THOMAS S. SALATHIEL

NATIVE KANSAN

"THOMAS S. SALATHIEL -- the gentleman, whose name heads this personal reference, is a representative of one of the pioneer families of Montgomery county. He is, by nativity, as well as by training, a Kansan, being born in Douglas County, October 23, 1866. His father, John SALATHIEL, of Independence, pioneered to the Territory of Kansas in 1854, having brought his mother out to the new town of Lawrence, in that year of the separation of Kansas and Nebraska, and the formation of the latter into a territory, with its present boundaries. Mr. SALATHIEL Sr. was a resident of Lawrence till his mother's death, directly after which he settled on a farm, some ten miles from the town, where he was living, during the QUANTRELL Raid. He joined PLUMB's company for the "hoped they wouldn't-find-em" pursuit of the guerilla band, and this and the volunteer service he rendered, when PRICE threatened Kansas, was all the military service he rendered during the Civil War.

"John SALATHIEL was born April 30, 1836, in Lawrence County, Ohio, on the townsite of Ironton. His father, Morgan SALATHIEL, was out in that country, as a geologist in the interest of a coal company, searching for coal lands. He afterward moved to Cincinnati and died, in 1851, while a resident of that place. He was born in Wales, British Isles, about 1796, married and has two surviving children: John SALATHIEL and Mrs. Mary HOWELL of Lawrence, Kansas. In 1849, John Salathiel crossed the "plains" with the great throng bound for the California gold fields, but soon returned home and remained in Cincinnati, Ohio, until his advent to Kansas, in company with his mother. He was one of the early merchants of Lawrence, but in 1860, became a farmer in Douglas County and remained such till 1871, when he came south into Montgomery County and purchased a claim on Sycamore creek, two miles north of the historic but eccentric town of Radical. He remained a farmer until 1880, when he came into Independence and engaged in the grocery business with which he has since been connected.

"He married in Lawrence, Kansas, in 1858, Jemimah COREL, a daughter of Henry COREL, who settled just east of Lawrence, in an early day; a part of the old farm being now the city's beautiful cemetery. Mr. COREL was a settler from West Virginia but both he and his wife died early, thus orphaning a family of eight young children. The following children have been born to John and Mrs. SALATHIEL: John, deceased; Charles, of Case Post Office, Oklahoma; Margaret, wife of Frederick NEWCOMB of Coffey County, Kansas; Thomas S., our subject; Henry M., who served in the Philippines with the Twentieth Kansas; Walter S., a student in the State University of Kansas, who served with the Fortieth U.S. Volunteers in the Filipino Insurrection, Agnes and Mary."

The Oregon Trail Project

A project of the Idaho Genealogical Society

The Oregon Trail Project is issuing special certificates to anyone whose ancestors came west via the Oregon Trail between the years 1811 and 1911.

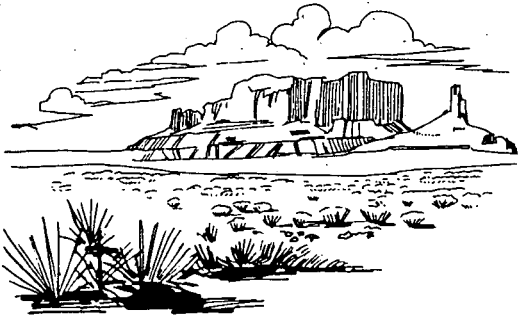

"This is a tribute to those hardy pioneers who came overland by wagon, handcart or foot along the Oregon Trail," said Jane Walls Golden, chairperson of the Oregon Trail Project. "Entire families, with all their worldly possessions in tow, left homes and loved ones to follow an inner voice that promised a better life 'out west'."

Recognizing descendants of Oregon Trail travelers commemorates the sesquicentennial (150th anniversary) of the peak year of westerly migration, Golden explained.

"People began to head west of the Missouri River in 1811 using the Old Platte Road," she said. "But the exodus was at its height in 1843, and the Old Platte Road then became known as the Oregon Trail."

To qualify for an Oregon Trail certificate, Golden said applicants must prove direct descent from a person who traveled any part of the Oregon Trail between 1811 and 1911. To receive an application or more information, write to the Oregon Trail Project at 4620 Overland Road, #206, Boise, Idaho 83705. Please enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope.

The Oregon Trail Project of Idaho is a non-profit organization dedicated to collecting, archiving and publishing data about the Oregon Trail.

A DIARY OF OUR TRIP ACROSS THE PLAINS - 1866
By Delila B. Wait

Part 3

SUNDAY, AUGUST 12

Came about a mile and crossed a creek and wound around the base of the mountains, over a desperately rough road all the forenoon. Stopped for dinner on a little creek. We came about twelve miles during the afternoon and camped on a small creek at the foot of mountains. Soon after we stopped, an Indian came into camp. His name was BANNOCK JOHN. He could talk very well and understand everything that was said. During the evening several more came with skins to swap for various articles. They were profuse with their demonstration of friendship and good will for the whites.

MONDAY, AUGUST 13

Started about the usual time, drove ten miles and stopped for dinner on the first of five creeks that run along here close together. When the stock was brought up Mr. BALDWIN's Jack horse was missing. We went to look for him while the rest were hitching up, but did not find him. The rest put out as soon as they were ready. We drove across the creek and stopped. We, John, Mose and Pa went to hunt the horse. In the course of half an hour they came with it. Came on and found the others, camped about ten miles from where they started on a beautiful stream of water than winds its way through an extensive valley.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 14

Our road lay along the edge of the valley during the forenoon. We crossed Wood river and stopped a half mile from it. Several went to the river and caught a nice lot of trout. This afternoon we came over another spur of the mountains and stopped just on the edge of a long narrow valley through which runs a stream of water. It is Big Camas Prairie.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 15

We started in good season and drove five hours. Mr. MERWIN got in the rear and the rest seemed to have no idea of stopping. As we were crossing a creek in the prairie, one of our singletrees broke, and Mr. B and ourselves drove out to one side, and turned out. The rest went about a mile and camped. When we came along, after dinner they were not ready to start, we drove on, passed an emigrant train of six wagons just before night. They have ox teams. We camped on a small creek, and the rest came and stopped close by.

THURSDAY, August 16

Started as soon as it was light. Came six miles and stopped for breakfast. In the course of an hour the rest came along. They look some sour and seemed anxious for us to keep with them. The folks told them they thought they would camp with them tonight but did not overtake them. We remained where we were till two o'clock and drove till nearly sundown. Camped in a hollow among the hills close by the Texans.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 17

We were on the road early. We saw where the others camped about three miles ahead of us. Several miles farther we came to a ranch and a little ways from it were several chimneys of demolished dwellings. There had been a prospect of a gold mine but it had been abandoned. We came up with John here. He had overtaken the folks and got his things out of Merwin's wagon. We came past a ranch and Hotel and stopped for dinner near it on a small creek. The family consists of a widow, her son and daughter. They started for Oregon two years ago but could get no farther than Boise, and came back and located. They are intending to go on this fall. The gentleman came to the wagons and spent some time. Mrs. B and Frank went to the house. They were very much pleased with the young lady. They declared she exceeded any thing they ever heard for conversational powers. Between one and two we resumed our march. We drove till after four and camped near another ranch. Mrs. B and Frank went to the house and got some nice potatoes and onions. The lady of the house came up to camp and spent the evening.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 18

The road was very rough and was a succession of up and down hill. Some of them were very steep and long. About six miles from camp we came down into a small basin through which was a small stream of water and a deserted ranch house, which served travellers as a shade and shelter. And from appearances it has been fully appreciated. Came on six miles farther and stopped for dinner in a small valley, where there were two other parties of Oregon emigrants camped. MERWINS and OWENS were there too when we arrived, but moved on soon after. The Texans came up too. We were in camp three hours. The road was nearly the same as that we came over this forenoon for several miles. Then we came up a canyon, passed the Junction house, and camped a mile and a half this side of it just about dark.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 19

This forenoon we passed several homes that were surrounded with evidences of cultivation and civilization. We met several pack trains. We stopped in a canyon near a ranch. There was a field enclosed near us and Mrs. B and I went to it and had the pleasure of looking at the best garden we have seen since leaving Kansas. We came ten miles this afternoon, passed a state station, came down the hill and camped at the foot of it within a mile of the river. The men went to the river fishing, but did not get any. The water was too muddy.

MONDAY, AUGUST 20

We left camp as soon as it was fairly light because there was so little feed for the stock. Were intending to stop the first place there was any feed for breakfast. They kept on but did not find any feed, and tried to buy some, but they asked such a price they could not afford to buy. Drove on a few miles and stopped on some very poor grass. Remained there about three hours. Three miles travel brought us to the Boise river. Mr. BALDWIN got out a ways in the water and his team refused to go. Father drove by him but did not go far till his leaders turned around and he had to get on one of them and ride to get them across. BALDWIN's team would not come on after ours, and he had to wade and lead them across. We passed MERWINS and OWENS camped in a lane not far from the City. We drove into town, stopped an hour or more, then came four or five miles and camped close to a small branch of the river.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 21

We came a short distance and stopped at a house and bought some vegetables. Then crossed the valley and came onto the hills, passed through another valley with farms and a nice house close to the road. About eight miles farther we came into another valley, passed a stage station, crossed the creek and came along the foot of the hills half a mile and camped for the rest of the day.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22

Our road lay among and over the hills for aways. Then we came down along steep sand-hill onto the broad and beautiful valley of the Payette, came about five miles across the valley to the river and stopped for dinner on its bank. It is a stream of good size, very clear water and gravel bottom, and abounds in fish, but we could not catch any. This afternoon we passed Mr. MERWINS and OWENS, about five miles from where we dined. They came another road from Boise. We came a few miles farther and camped near the roadside, about half mile from the river. Soon after we stopped the others passed by. Alf rode up to the camp and chatted half hour or more. Hervey stopped at Boise City.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23

We are still travelling down the valley, past nice dwellings surrounded by well cultivated farms with stacks of grain and hay. We came about ten miles and turned out toward the river to camp. Father would not stop where BALDWIN did and drove a mile on down the river to its bank and stopped. We started at two and drove a half mile to the ferry. A man there directed him where to ford it. We crossed and waited for BALDWIN. The water came up to the wagon box. We drove about ten miles through the worst dust we have found on the road, and camped on the bank of Snake River, opposite a large island in the stream. A team was camped near us that has travelled in company with us since Sunday noon. They are going to Grand Round Valley. The boys caught a nice lot of fish since we stopped.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 24

A couple miles drive brought us to a ranch where we got some water from an excellent springs. The road kept near the river for several miles, then made for Weaser river where we arrived about ten o'clock. Our friends were camped a short distance down the river where we stopped. We remained there about three hours, crossed over and came across an extensive prairie covered with sagebrush. We came to Snake river just sunset and stopped for the night.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25

The road this forenoon lay close along the bank of the river with rough high mountains on the right. Seven or eight miles travel brought us to the ferry. The boat was the largest and best one we have been on. There was three wagons, and sixteen head of stock on the boat when we came over. We came about two miles from the ferry, camped on the hillside for dinner. Mr. Johnathen PARKES stopped close by. Mrs. B called on his wife and thought her quite interesting. Soon after starting we came into the valley of Burnt river and traveled up it all the afternoon. We left just night and came up in the hills and camped near a spring. MERWINS passed on by us. (And that was the last time we saw them.)

SUNDAY, AUGUST 26

We started early this morning, came through a toll gate and soon after crossed Burnt river, and came up it to another toll gate. We took the right hand road from there. Mr. PARKER went the other road that goes through Baker City. We came up the canyon about a mile and a half and stopped for dinner. In the afternoon we had several hills to climb. We stopped about four o'clock in a gulch through which were several spring brooks. There were a lot of packers near us.

MONDAY, AUGUST 27

We were on the road before sunrise, travelled through a narrow valley for several miles, then took the road to Union. Came into a deep canyon about two miles and stopped for dinner. The road continued up the canyon for several miles, then took off across the hills. We camped on a side hill off to the right of the road, where there was a small branch of water.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28

Just three months today since we left Lawrence, Kansas.

Came to Powder river, crossed over on a good bridge and stopped for dinner just this side, where there was the finest feed they have had anywhere since we started. There is a toll house on the other side of the river and a good sized dwelling on this side at the edge of the bottom, which is a half mile wide here. A man that was putting up hay three miles down the river wanted some more help. The men talked it over and said they would just as soon stop a week or two, so

Father got on one of the mules and went to the hay camp. While he was gone, the others went up to the house where some bachelors were living. They told them if they intended to cross the Cascade mountains this fall they must not fool away any time. So they were ready to travel when Father came back. They did their best, and I did too, to persuade him to go on with them but he would not do it. About four o'clock we bade them a sad farewell and they went on while we went back across the bridge and came down the river to the hay camp. There are three men, intelligent and agreeable. The evening was spent in pleasant conversation. The boss is Pat COMSASKY, an Irishman, Mr. FULL, an elderly gentleman whose family and home is in Wisconsin, where he is intending to go soon, and last though not least is John IRWIN, a large man of about thirty-five and a rather prepossessing appearance, whose home and family is in the John Day country.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29

They moved camp down across the river this morning a mile and a half where they had some more hay to stack. Our camp is near the river in a grove of willows. They cleared out a space in the midst of the grove to set the table and a place to cook, and it is the neatest, shadiest camp that ever was. I am cooking for the outfit. After dinner I took the hook and line, went to the river and fished patiently but did not get even a bite. It has been sprinkling this afternoon and looks very much like rain tonight.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 30

It rained some last night, so they could not put up hay this forenoon. Pat and Pa went to the cabin two miles distant for provisions. Mr. FULL and John remained in camp and kept fires and entertained us pleasantly with conversation. After dinner the wind blew too hard to work with hay.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31

Last night the Sheriff aroused the camp about midnight to serve a subpoena on Mr. FULL and Pat to appear at Baker City today. They went and Pat came back awhile after dark. (First camp was at the mouth of Palm creek and the cabin, or dugout, was in the hill above Wellington's a little ways).

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1

They moved camp up the river this morning about opposite the first one. We have a very pleasant camp here in a willow grove. Oh, if Mrs. B were here I could enjoy myself first rate.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 2

It sprinkled some this morning, and looked fair for a rainy day, but fortunately for us it cleared off before nine o'clock and has been very pleasant the rest of the day. Pat went up to Mr. TUCKER's and brought Mrs. Tucker back with him. She is quite a pleasant woman. She has a little girl, Nancy, about a year old. During the afternoon Mr. TUCKER (STUCKER) and a Mr. MATHEWS came with Pat's cows that Mr. T's folks had been milking, and they spent the afternoon and took supper with us.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 3

Mr. FULL came back today and will work a while longer. Pat went to the town Hogem up in the mountains today. There are two families living there, PACKWOODS and PIERCES and a few miners. Mr. TUCKER came down and took dinner with us.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4

The day has passed the same as usual, with the work in the hayfield and in camp.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

Another day has passed without anything to break the monotony of camp.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

This day has passed with the usual routine of every day. Nothing transpired of interest.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

Mr. FULL started for Union town this morning. After dinner, Pat was going up to the cabin for some things and proposed to Frank and I to go with him. FRANK put my saddle on one of our mules, and Pat saddled one of his mules for me to ride. We crossed the river, went out by the first camp, across the creek, and up it about a mile to the cabin where we were welcomed by Pat's housekeeper, the old black cat. From there we went up the creek to the beaver's dam, then onto the hill where we took a good view of the surrounding country through the telescope. We came to the garden where he showed the fish trap which is a large frame of wicker work. They can go in it easy enough but cannot get out. We got the potatoes and started for camp. We were galloping along and I was in the rear when Jack reared and sprang to one side and left me on my back in the road. It did not hurt me much. I got on him again. He jumped with me a couple times more before we got to camp but I was on guard and he did not get me off again, but will not ride him again.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

This day has been spent in the usual routine of camp life.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

After breakfast Pat brought up the mules and saddled three of them, and Pat, Frank and I started for Mr. TUCKER'S. We went out by the cabin till we came to the couster road. There was a deserted ranch just above the road where we turned to the left, a mile or two more we came over onto Clover creek. There was a house unoccupied about half mile above the road. A couple of miles further we came to Mr. TUCKER's residence, very pleasantly situated in a small valley. We were treated to some excellent melons. After dinner, Mrs. TUCKER, Frank and I went across the creek to a garden which is a large fine one. They have a good market at the miners for all they can raise. The afternoon was pleasantly spent. Our mules were brought around to the gate and we started for camp. We came down the creek to the river, then down it. It was much nearer than through the hills.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

This forenoon was spent in moving camp and fixing it up. We crossed the river and came up it about half mile. This place is nicer yet than the last one. A Mr. CURTISS came to work for Pat just before supper. He seems to be a very agreeable gentleman. (He became one of our particular friends.)

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

I have been washing today and nothing has occurred out of the usual. Mr. CURTISS, Pat and Frank have enlivened the evening with singing.

(When the haying was done we all went up the river to the toll house and spent the winter there, at what is the PIERCE place now.)

FEDERAL CENSUS 1860 LAWRENCE KANSAS

This alphabetized listing of the 1860 census of Lawrence is copied from the cards located in the Watkins Museum, 11th and Massachusetts streets in Lawrence. Thanks to Steve Jansen and Judy Sweets for making the cards available for this project.

Anyone wishing to reconstruct the "households" can do so by looking at the original cards or contacting Donald Vaughn of the Douglas County Kansas Genealogical Society. Any of the elements in the computer data base can be found and grouped.

Several names were hard to read on the original and the cards. Question marks were placed by several names. Some names with () around them in the given name column are listed with alternate spellings. If no information was given a question mark was used.

Several street names have changed over the years in Lawrence. The following abbreviations were used for streets.

Ber	Berkley
Hen	Henry
Lev	Levee
Ma	Massachusetts
Mass	Massachusetts
Park	Park
Pin	Pinckney

Win	Winthrop

The following abbreviations were used for countries.
