 the retiring members, Mrs. Hurley and Mr. Bromelick carried. The following is a copy of the petition.
 Jan. 14 - 1921, to the Honorable Mayor of Lawrence.
 At the last meeting of the Library Board a resolution was passed to petition the Honorable Mayor to reappoint the retiring members, Mr. Bromelick and Mrs. Hurley.

Because of the valuable services rendered extending over a number of years, and because of his knowledge of the details of the work, and because of his practical economy in handling the finances of the Library, it is much desired that Mr. Bromelick remain with us.

Mrs. Hurley has also been a faithful and efficient member for many years, always working for every interest which concerns the Library, and we feel that it is for the welfare of the reading public, which our Library serves, that she be retained.

Therefore: we do humbly request the Honorable Mayor to reappoint these valuable members.
