PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Another half year has slipped by with many excellent accomplishments and many tasks to keep us busy for some time to come.

This is the second issue of the Pioneer for 82-83. The new cover and other features have been well received. A big thanks to Editor Grace Embers and her many helpers.

We could be facing a financial problem in the near future as postage has doubled to send the Pioneers out of town and the cost of printing and supplies is up. We would appreciate hearing from our out of state members to help us decide if we should mail Pioneers only twice per year, make them smaller, charge a surcharge for mailing or come up with a better solution.

Ilah Derrick has been busy answering genealogical problems sent in by people from the west coast to the east coast and even Europe. Thanks for your work, Ilah.

A lot of credit for our good attendance at our meetings go to the Calling Committee headed by Dorothy Clarke with Irma Kidwell and Kathryn Bunton. Thanks for your faithful work.

Wilma Vaughn, our librarian and her committee have been busy cataloguing the exchange quarterlies and taking care of our Library. The Friends of the Lawrence Public Library donated a set of Adjutant Generals records of the Civil War for Illinois. Recent gifts of several volumes of the Connecticut Nutmegger and NEH & GR by Thomas and Catherine Gorton are greatly appreciated.

Fay Talley is the Hospitality Chairman. Thanks for arranging with many generous members who make our meetings more enjoyable by furnishing refreshments.

Jane Wiggins, our secretary and Dorothy Wiggins, our treasurer, have spent many hours writing letters, typing, taking care of memberships, collecting dues and filing members' five generation charts, etc. Many thanks to both of you.

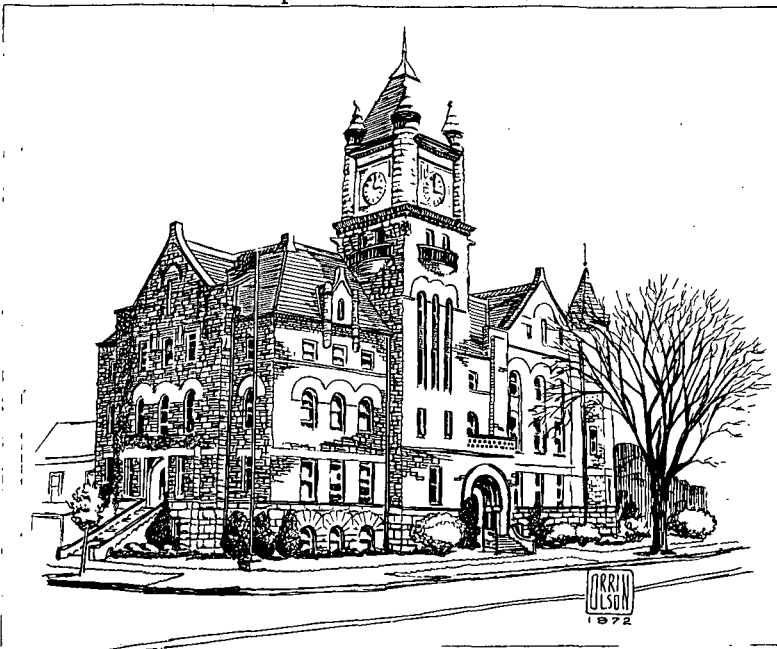

Last but not least, many thanks to Jean Snedeger, our vice-president for all the organizing, copying, arranging and innumerable details she has taken care of.

This Pioneer is being distributed at our December meeting which is a Christmas pot luck dinner held at the South Park Reacreational Center. I personally want to wish every member and friend a Happy Holiday and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,

Donald Vaughn, President

This drawing of the Douglas County Court House by Orrin Olson is one of four Lawrence scenes from note cards for sale by the society. The cost is $3.00 for 16 cards.

HISTORICAL SOCIETIES OF DOUGLAS COUNTY, KANSAS

CLINTON LAKE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, INC.

c/o Mrs. Martha Parker, Director
RFD #2
Overbrook, Kansas 66524

Dues: $5.00 per year

Meeting: Annual Meeting in February (usually during the third week).
The exact date and time will be announced.

The Society began as a committee in March of 1973 for the purpose of saving the J.C. Steele House in Bloomington (about 1 mile east of Clinton) from destruction by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. They succeeded in getting the Steele House named to the National Register of Historic Sites in November 1973. The committee was incorporated as a Society on March 17, 1977 in order to maintain and operate the Steele House as a museum, and to preserve the history of the area.

The Corps of Engineers reversed their decision on September 14, 1977, and the Steele House was dismantled with the agreement to build a small museum with a courtyard and stage for special programs, to be directed, staffed and maintained by the Clinton Lake Historical Society, Inc. The Society is making plans for the grand opening of the Bloomington Museum on May 1, 1983.

The Society has two publications for sale: Soil of Our Souls by Martha Parker and Betty Laird, $5.95 plus $1.00 postage; and Historical Map of Clinton Lake, based on the book, $1.50 plus $.25 postage.

Lawrence Republican, Thursday, March 15, 1860

Washington, March 12, 1860--"The Homestead Bill passed the House today by a vote 114 against 62!"

OLDER HOMES IN LAWRENCE ARE NUMEROUS

From an article by Mrs. Ivan D. Rowe in the Lawrence Daily Journal World, Thursday, December 8, 1960.

The first house in Lawrence was built in 1854. A log cabin about 18 by 24 feet erected by Clark Stearns from Missouri. The act of organizing the territories of Kansas and Nebraska passed Congress, May 30, 1854, and within a few days after that, Stearns arrived and erected his cabin as a squatter's claim, for a farm. There is a cement marker at 615 Massachusetts Street which reads, "Site of the first house in Lawrence, 60 feet east."

In June of the same year, Achilles B. Wade built a cabin east of the present Water Works, on Indiana Street.

The old Babcock barn at 2239 West Drive was converted into a duplex by George K. Melvin. Mr. Melvin's grandparents were early settlers. Next door north on the Melvin property is a small house built and used by the Babcocks for the servants.

At 623 Indiana, Adam Oliver brought his family from England in 1858 and to Lawrence in 1862. After Quantrill's Raid the family went to Canada for a short time, but soon returned to Lawrence and Oliver built the house at 802 Tennessee. Many people in Lawrence think the 802 Tennessee residence was the first house of the Olivers, but records show otherwise.

Also in the 800 block on Tennessee is 827 presently owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tait. This house was built on the edge of a ravine which was later filled, leaving the first floor below the ground level.

The Robert H. Miller house, 1111 East 19th Street, was built in 1858. It was a farm home then, and remained in the Miller family until 1952.

The house at 743 Indiana Street was built by Hiram Towne, a well-known contractor. This house was rented by Towne to a widow, Mrs. Emily Hoyt, but he reserved a room for himself. Mr. Towne also built North College.

Mr. F. W. Jaedicke, a gunsmith and hardware merchant, purchased the home in 1879 and the house has remained in the family, being presently owned by a daughter, Mrs. Otto A. Fischer.

The house at 1008 Ohio was built by George W. Bell.

The 718 Locust residence was built in 1869 by A. J. Dicker. Dicker came to Lawrence in 1868 and built his grocery and meat store in North Lawrence and a year later built his home east of the store in the following block. The home is now owned and occupied by Donald Dicker.

Other homes include:

1106 Rhode Island--occupied by Tom Delahunty and his sister was built about 1870 by Tom's father, R. Delahunty. He was in the transfer business when he came to Lawrence in 1867.

702 Rhode Island--built by Julius Fischer in 1869. He was one of the original 16 Germans who were sent out in 1875 from Chicago, by a German Association, to found the town of Eudora.

JONES CEMETERY

The Jones Cemetery (also called the Vancil Cemetery) is located in Clinton Township (Sec. 25, Twp. 13, R 18) two miles north of Lone Star in the woods just to the west of a horse trail. A rock wall partially encloses the cemetery. There are only two stones standing: one a footstone and the other a tombstone marking the graves of:

Abbie VANCIL, died May 16, 1857, age 13 yrs. 2 mos.
Daniel VANCIL, died Jan. 3, 1864, age 50 yrs. 7 mos. 8 ds.

The VANCIL family lived in the Bloomington area which lies in the valley about one mile north of the cemetery. It is not known how many people were buried here, but there are depressions where some of the graves are located. According to Ada Lindell in Will Hastie's Record of Cemeteries of Douglas County, Kansas, six other graves are marked with rocks at head and foot.

Marshall J. JONES and Mary Ann HOLMES, both born near London, England, were married January 11, 1842, and came from Harper's Ferry, Va. to Kansas in the spring of 1856. They had four boys and four girls. Martha PARKER of the Clinton Lake Historical Society said that their great grandsons, Olin and Howard PETEFISH, only knew of four children. Marshall was a deacon in the Baptist Church.

Hastie states that Marshall preempted the farm on which this cemetery is a part, and that an indenture was made between Henry and Martha ULRICH (daughter of Marshall and Mary JONES) to the Jones Cemetery Association for $5.00 on August 25, 1884. The Trustees were: Henry ULRICH, James M. HALBERT, Michael CATHERMAN, J.W. MATNEY, and Thomas BOND. These records are on file in the Secretary of State's Office, Book 36, p. 336.

Marshall, Mary Ann and their oldest son Alpheus Alexander are buried in this cemetery, all having died within a short time of each other. The birth, death and marriage information was obtained from the family Bible which was later destroyed by fire.

OBITUARIES FROM TENNESSEE NEWSPAPERS

Compiled by: Jill L. Garrett

QUANTRILL, William Clarke.. Monument in Lawrence County, Kansas: Dedicated to the memory of the 150 citizens who defenseless fell victims to the inhuman ferocity of border guerrillas led by the infamous Quantrell in his raid upon Lawrence on 21 Aug. 1863. Erected 30 May 1896.

Quantrell, Kansas guerrilla and murderer, was captured in Kentucky last week; brought to Louisville, badly wounded. (Nashville Daily Union, 16 May 1865.) (N. B. He signed his name Quantrill; he was born 31 July 1837 at Canal Dover, Ohio, died 6 June 1865 in Louisville; was buried in hidden grave at St. John's Catholic Cemetery; in Dec 1887 his remains were moved to Canal Dover, Ohio.)

Man known as T. G. Henderson died one day last week at the home of Mrs. Parnell in Birmingham, Alabama. Before he died he confessed to her that he was Charles William Quantrell, the famous Missouri outlaw, who was supposed to have been killed in a fight with Federal soldiers in Kentucky near the close of the war. (Florence, Ala., Times, 17 Oct. 1890.)

The Lawrence Massacre. Up to this morning 128 bodies have been buried but it is still utterly impossible to obtain a complete list of their names, as so many are so much disfigured as to prevent recognition, while others are still missing, and are supposed to be concealed in the woods nearby or, they may be in the ruins of the buildings, besides many left with Lane in pursuit of Marmaduke and not yet returned.

Fifty of Quantrell's gang who are citizens of Jackson County, Missouri, and are all well known here and have been considered Union men; many of them are paroled prisoners from Pemberton's army, and some of them are from Price's command, from the fact that they are much sunburnt and have the appearance of having been long in the service.

After they had accomplished the destruction of Lawrence, some of them became much intoxicated, but being strapped to their horses, there were none left behind to give information as to who they were or where they were from.

Aug. 22--The citizens of Lawrence, shot by Quantrell's band, number 108, including the Major and his son. The inhabitants fled into ravines and bushes, where they were fired into by the guerrillas. Twenty-five negro recruits were shot. The guerrillas took all the money in the pockets of citizens and in houses. They stole ladies jewelry even the rings from their fingers.

Jim Lane escaped on horseback, rallied about 200 men and followed Quantrell about 12 miles south of Lawrence, where a fight occurred, the result of which is unknown. Quantrell is now retreating toward Missouri, burning everything on his route. No resistance was made at Lawrence, the people being shot down as they ran through the streets in their night clothes, and their bodies thrown into wells and cisterns. The citizens had been expecting this raid and had organized into companies for defence, but from assurances that Quantrell would not invade Kansas, their organizations were abandoned and the guerrillas found them entirely defenceless. (Nashville Daily Union, 22 Aug 1863.)

Quantrell's force reached the headwaters of Grand River, Cass County, Missouri, about noon on August 25, after burning Lawrence and then divided into squads of from 40 to 50, and scattered in various directions.

Quantrell's men told many persons before reaching Lawrence that they were going to destroy the town, but by some strange fatality, the people along the route, who might easily have gotten word to Lawrence, did not try. A messenger was sent by Capt. Coleman to notify the people of Lawrence of Quantrell's approach, but failed to get through. (Nashville Daily Union, 25 Aug 1865)

Quantrell's raid made 85 widows and 250 orphans. (Nashville Dispatch, 28 Aug 1863.)

Aug 20--Guerrillas under Quantrell with 800 men crossed into Kansas near Gardner, 4 miles below Leavenworth, and started for Lawrence and pillaged stores, shot citizens and fired houses. (Nashville Dispatch, 22 Aug 1863.)

Quantrell's band is now retreating toward Missouri, burning everything on the route. His force consists of guerrillas who have been robbing and murdering along the border for months. (Nashville Dispatch 23 Aug 1863)

As of the 24th, 128 bodies have been buried at Lawrence, Kansas; others are missing and are probably in the ruins. (Nashville Dispatch, 26 Aug 1863.)

At Lawrence, Kansas, 183 bodies have been buried and there are 182 buildings burned. (Nashville Dispatch, 27 Aug 1863.)

Naturalization Records

Naturalization records may be a good source of genealogical data. Usually these papers were treasured family documents, and often were kept in the pages of the family Bible or with old family letters.

Because the first Naturalization Act passed by Congress on 26 March 1790 provided that an alien who desired to become a citizen should apply to "any common law court of record, in any one of the states where he shall have resided for the term of one year at least", he may have been naturalized in the Federal, State or Local Courts.

On 29 Jan 1795, Congress passed a new Naturalization Act requiring a residence period of five years and renunciation of allegiances and titles of nobility as pre-requisite to citizenship. This was amended on 18 June 1798 to require residence of fourteen years, and declaration of intention for five years. However this was repealed in 1802 when the Naturalization Law of 1795 was re-inacted.

Prior to the present Naturalization Law (1952), an applicant had to wait at least two years after filing a Declaration of Intention to become a citizen before he could file a Petition for Naturalization. This is no longer necessary.

Records of naturalization proceedings in the Federal Courts are usually found in records of the District Court in which the proceedings took place. Records prior to 27 Sept 1906 may still be in custody of the court, they may have been transferred to the National Archives, or they may have been transferred to the Federal Records Center operated by the GSA. Since 1906, duplicates of the records are deposited with the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Washington, D. C.

In the late 1930's, the WPA began to make photographic copies of the records and to index them. Copies and indexes filed by the courts in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Rhode Island 1787-1906, and for the District of Columbia 1802-1926, are now in the National Archives.

Information on the records include the place and date of birth of the alien, the country from which he emigrated, name of the vessel, date and port of arrival in the U. S., the name under which he traveled and more. An alien was permitted to change his name at the time of his application for citizenship, which decree would be shown on the Naturalization Certificate when issued.

Advice from the Federal Records Center is that the federal law which prevented copying of a Naturalization Certificate has been repealed, and that all naturalization records are public records.

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame,
With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame is the imprisoned lightning, and her name
Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand
Glow world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
The air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame.
"Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!" cries she
With silent lips. "Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

--Emma Lazarus, "The New Colossus" 1883. She was born in New York of Jewish parentage and was deeply concerned with the plight of the Jews driven from Russia to the United States.

LECOMPTON CITY DIRECTORY
FOR 1866

Lecompton, Douglas County, the former Capital of Kansas, and the centre of the Pro-Slavery faction, is now rapidly recovering from the withering blight entailed upon it in the time of Border Ruffianism.

The United Brethren have established a Church there, and are doing much to build up the town and make it a desirable place of residence.

A school bearing the name of Lane University, has been established under their auspices, and is a valuable addition to the Educational Institutions of the County and State. It embraces four departments, viz: Primary, Scientific, Classical and Commercial. The collegiate course is as complete as in most eastern colleges.

The Commercial Department embraces a thorough and complete course in that important branch of education.

The present number of instructors are seven. Students, one hundred and fifty.

The Last News From the Lecompton Constitution Committee

The Kansas City Star, Wednesday, 30 January 1894

"In the collection of the Kansas State Historical Society is now found an old candle box with this inscription: The last news from the Lecompton Constitution Committee.

This box was found buried under a woodpile adjoining the Surveyor-General (Calhoun's) land office at Lecompton, February 2, 1858. It contained the returns of the election of December 21, 1857, for the Lecompton Constitution; also the results of the election of January 4, 1858, under said constitution, as sworn to by General Samuel Walker (Sheriff of Douglas County), by Governor Denver, G.W. Dietzler (Speaker of the House of Representatives), and C.W. Babcock, President of the Council of the Territorial Legislature of Kansas.

This discovery is but one of the many important objects gained through the exertions of the "Board of Commissioners for the Investigation of Election Frauds." The board consists of Messers H.J. Adams, J.R. Abbott, Thomas Ewing, jr., D. Pickering and H.T. Green.

Information has been received that the returns were under a woodpile, instead of having been sent to John Calhoun by a messenger from Platte county, Missouri as testified to under oath, on the 29th of January by General L.A. Maclean, Chief Clerk of the Surveyor-General's office. The board applied to I. Miller, Judge of the Probate, who instructed Sheriff Walker to obtain the people's assistance and search for said returns.

Having obtained the assistance of George Roberts, Lewis H. Tappan, Levi Galts, A. Gunther, L. Hanscourt, J.R. White, D.B. Hones, R. Hutchins, I. Shepherd, S. Jerrold, H.J. King, J.F. Walker, J.B. Haines and C.H. Webster, they proceeded from Lawrence to Lecompton where they arrived at 12 o'clock midnight, and procured this box and contents as above stated.

This added infamy to the Lecompton convention and affixed to its president the name of "Candle Box Calhoun". When the people voted on the constitution in August 1858, there were 1,788 for and 11,300 against it."

From Lawrence Daily Journal-World, Thurs., Oct. 10, 1929

Mrs. Jane BAKER to Douglas County in '54

In a request for names of persons who came to Kansas in 1860 and before and are still living in the county the Journal-World received the following interesting letter from Mrs. Jane BAKER who lives on Route 1, Overbrook, Kansas:

"Seeing the ad in the Journal-World wanting the names of the old settlers I will send in mine. I came with my parents to the south line of Douglas County in 1854. I am still living three miles from where father took up his claim.

"My husband, John BAKER, came here in 1858. We were married in 1872 and have lived here on this place ever since.

"We have raised six boys and all are married except one and he is with us yet.

"My husband is 85 years old and I will be 81 in November. If we both live until the 29th of October, we will be married fifty-five years.

"I am doing my own washing and all my own house work and boarding the Brubaker school teacher.

"We live twenty-two miles from Lawrence. I want to come to the anniversary if I can and I hope that it will be good weather."
