

Out-of-Town Wedding of Interest.

Announcement was made in Lawrence yesterday of the coming marriage of Mrs. Nellie Beatty, librarian of the Lawrence Carnegie Library to Mr. S. L. Palmer, of Hutchinson which will take place early in March. Mrs. Beatty has had charge of the Lawrence library since prior to the establishment of the Carnegie equipment. She is widely known and loved in Lawrence. She is the mother of Jerome Beatty a former Hutchinson newspaper man now in New York. Mr. Palmer is the father of Principal S. L. Palmer, formerly head of the local high school. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will make their home on the Palmer farm near Hutchinson.—Hutchinson News.
