NOTES ON THE ELECTION

Ninety girls received votes for the prettiest girl.
 Our drummer "Hollie" Wheeler is considered effeminate.
 Several votes were cast for the dimples in Ossie Bradley's knees.
 The Misses Hudson, Wood, and Helen Myers were mentioned for Deepest Drug-store Tints.
 Frances Morawetz, "Connie" McCrew, Rex Darby, Ossie Bradley, and Fred Boger were numbered among the Worst Masculine Vamps."
 Tom and Albert were named as the Best Pushers (of dirt).
 "Pap" came in strong for Teachers' Pet.

V. A. YOUNG, Supreme President.

The F. A. U. Hall has been entirely remodeled and is now open for dates. The dance floor is the best in the Middle West and can be engaged for dances afternoon and night.

We also have a small dance hall to accommodate about twenty-five couples, which can be used either afternoon or evening for small parties, at very reasonable rates.

The Banquet Hall has been renovated and supplied with tables, chairs, dishes, plates, cutlery and glassware, kitchen utensils and table covers; in fact everything necessary for breakfast, lunch or dinner. It is not necessary to hire these articles from outside sources, as heretofore.

We cater to both large and small parties and respectfully solicit your patronage.

The 1921 RED and BLACK

Lives of editors remind us
That their lives are not sublime,
For we have to work like thunder
If this book is out on time.—Ex.

Dedicated to George Docking
Lines of Virgil all remind us,
We can make our lives sublime,
And by asking foolish questions
Take up all the teacher's time.

Silently, one by one, within the walls of the high school,
Blossom the little cases, the forget-me-nots of the seniors.

Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest
are these—I flunked again.

A Symphony

I

The day is done, and the darkness
Falls from the wings of night,
Around the corner is Kennie
Hugging Sarah with all his might.

II

I see the lights of the village
Gleam through the rain and the mist;
And I hear little Lois whisper,
"That's the fourth time I've been kissed.

III

A swift-moving form in the blackness,
A distant noise in the dark,
It sounded like an auto
But it must have been a spark.

IV

Come read to me some poem,
Some simple, heart-felt lay
About some thrilling subject,
Say Lorena and "Levi."

V

And the night will be filled with music
And the cases which does us infest—
May fold their tents like the Arabs
And give us a little rest!

I don't want much, I never did;
I'm such a satisfied small kid;
Just let me hear when I get to heaven
Those sweetest of all words—
Seven come eleven.

"Tuby" Lind—The girls in Paris aren't wearing skirts any longer.

Bill Altic—What!

"Tuby"—They've decided they're long enough.

Miss Wood, "An athlete is a dignified bunch of muscles unable to saw wood or pass quizzes."

To The Juniors

If you're lonesome, cross and dull,
Have a date.

When exams have caused a lull,
Have a date.

When your lessons are all learned,
When from eating you have turned,
When sweet Morpheus you have spurned,
Have a date.

If a theme you cannot choose,
Write of dates.

If debates you would not lose
Mind the date.

When your high school days are through
When all debts are paid that're due,
Make a date.

—Ex.

"Stump," "The biggest blower doesn't always lead the band."

George Carey, "When you're down at the mouth just think of Jonah, he came out all right."

Edward Spencer, "Cheer up! Beauty's nothing but a skin game."

Margaret Jenkins, "A woman is as old as she looks—a man is not old 'till he quits looking."

The mucilage ad reads "The thinner you spread it the better it will stick." This is good advice to many.

(At the Two Tees Lunch training table just before football practice). Mackie—Well "Tar" howsa boy? I just had a bowl of ox-tail soup and I feel bully.

Ulm—That's nothing. I had a plate of hash and I feel like everything.

Teacher—There are only four in here that are doing passing work.

Senior—Who are the other three?

Edna U.—He put his arm around me five times yesterday.

Irene Getter—Some arm.

Miss Blackburn—Sarah did you ever catch
Kenneth flirting?

Sarah—Yes, that's how I got him.

Bill Hughes—Do you think betting is wrong?

John Fuller—The way I bet generally is.

"When a feller need a friend"

NOTICE. Due to an error the names were not printed under the bottom pictures on the baby-picture snapshot page. It is therefore necessary to be stated that those are the photographs of Kenneth E. Stevenson and Sarah E. Williams.

After the Fall

Observant Child: Oh look at the funny man, Mother! He's sitting on the sidewalk talking to a banana peel.

Mr. Rush—"Do you think man descended from monkeys?"

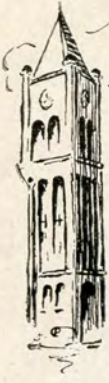

Miss Ogg—"Not very far."

Teacher—What are the mumps?

Pupil—Oh, they're a swell disease.

Lorena Mack (to Orval Crites)—I wish you'd look the other way.

Young Brother—He can't help the way he looks.

Plans for the Summertime

Vacation time will soon be here, and summer wouldn't be summer at all without an excursion, a trip in the motor car or by train or an outing away from the scenes of every day.

Clothes for vacation time are no longer a problem, a Sport Coat, or Sweater, a Smart Skirt of White Flannel, a Mar-hof-Middy Dress, A Dress of Canton Crepe, Taffeta, Georgette, or Organdie—and you are properly and comfortably dressed for most every occasion. All these things, together with the newest furnishings and accessories you will find at your accustomed shopping place—
